

Contents

| | | |
|------------------|---|-----------|
| Foreword | Arrivals and Departures | ix |
| Chapter 1 | Curriculum Spaces Research Theory | 1 |
| | The Crisis of Representation | 4 |
| | Epistemology | 5 |
| | Postmodern Theories | 8 |
| | Critical Discourse Analysis | 15 |
| | Conclusion | 19 |
| Chapter 2 | The Methodological Journey | 21 |
| | Life History—Revisiting Irene | 22 |
| | Extending Ethnography | 35 |
| | Positionality | 50 |
| | Final Thoughts | 54 |
| Chapter 3 | The Good Teacher: Charter Schools and Teacher Education | 57 |
| | A Postmodern Moment | 59 |
| | Social and Educational Discourses | 61 |
| | Teacher Education Reform Rhetoric— The Professional Development School Model | 62 |
| | The Charter School for ‘Push-Out Recovery’ | 69 |
| | Redemptive Cultures | 76 |
| Chapter 4 | Gender and Race: Discourses That Other | 79 |
| | Constructing Gender | 79 |
| | Critical Discourse Analysis and Deviant Historiography | 82 |
| | Constructing Discourses of the Deviant Female Juvenile Offender | 83 |
| | The Juvenile Justice System | 91 |

| | | |
|------------------|--|------------|
| | Theorizing the Raced Construction of the Subject in Multicultural Education | 97 |
| | Spaces of Othering through Gender and Race | 103 |
| Chapter 5 | A Postcolonial Subject Position | 105 |
| | 9/11 Otherness | 105 |
| | Colonized and Colonizing Spaces | 107 |
| | Citizens and Aliens | 109 |
| | A Postcolonial Story | 111 |
| | At Home—Theoretically Speaking | 115 |
| | Postscript | 118 |
| Chapter 6 | The Hollywood Teacher: Knowing through Film | 121 |
| | Redemptive Spaces and Youth in Trouble | 122 |
| | Vintage Films | 123 |
| | The Perfect Teacher—Mr. Chips | 124 |
| | The Anti-Teacher—Miss Jean Brodie | 126 |
| | A Psychoanalytic Moment | 129 |
| | So What? | 131 |
| Chapter 7 | From Currere to Curriculum Spaces | 133 |
| | Where Do We Go From Here? | 136 |
| | Ethics | 137 |
| | Bibliography | 139 |
| | Index | 151 |