

Contents

Introduction: History of Criticism and the History of a Concept...	1
--	---

Part One: Reconstructing the Concept's History

1 Poetics, Rhetoric, and Ethics:

The Origins of the Implied Author Concept.....	17
--	----

1.1 The Chicago School of Criticism

1.1.1 The Critical Turn in the Academic Study of Literature in North America.....	18
--	----

1.1.2 The Chicago Critics: Pluralism and Aristotelianism.....	22
--	----

1.1.3 The Legacy of the Chicago School .....	36
--	----

1.2 Wayne C. Booth and the Implied Author Concept

1.2.1 Booth's Combined Ethical and Rhetorical Approach to Literary Texts .....	42
---	----

1.2.2 The Implied Author and The Rhetoric of Fiction .....	46
---	----

1.2.3 The Implied Author after The Rhetoric of Fiction .....	56
---	----

2 Between Interpretation Theory and Narratology:

The Reception of the Implied Author Concept .....	63
---	----

2.1 The Implied Author in Relation to Interpretation Theory

2.1.1 The Reviews of The Rhetoric of Fiction .....	69
---	----

2.1.2 The Implied Author as the Key Concept in a Theory of Interpretation.....	74
---	----

2.2 The Implied Author in Relation to Interpretation and Description

2.2.1 Reception of the Concept in the Wake of Structuralism .....	84
--	----

2.2.2 The Implied Author in Relation to Interpretation in Practice .....	86
---	----

2.2.3 The Implied Author in Relation to Description.....	104
--	-----

2.3 The Model Author and Other Author Models:
Alternative Concepts to the Implied Author .....	121
2.3.1 Umberto Eco's Model Author .....	123
2.3.2 Wolf Schmid's Abstract Author .....	130
2.3.3 Wolfgang Iser's Implied Reader .....	136
2.3.4 The Apparent Artist, the Fictional Author, and the Postulated Author .....	143
 Part Two: Explicating the Concept
 3 Exit IA?
Possibilities for Explicating the Implied Author .....	151
 3.1 The Implied Author as a Phenomenon of Reception.....	152
3.2 The Implied Author as a Participant in Communication....	155
3.3 The Implied Author as a Postulated Subject
Behind the Text .....	158
3.3.1 Explicating the Concept in the Context of a Non-Intentionalistic Theory of Interpretation .....	162
3.3.2 Explicating the Concept in the Context of an Intentionalistic Theory of Interpretation.....	167
 Abbreviations .....	183
 Works Cited.....	185
 Acknowledgements .....	225