

CONTENTS

PREFACE ix

1. THE PROBLEM OF JUSTIFICATION 1

Central Questions of Moral Philosophy 1

Is It Needless to Justify a Supreme Moral Principle? 7

Is It Impossible to Justify a Supreme Moral Principle? 12

Can a Supreme Moral Principle Be Justified Inductively? 17

Reason and the Generic Features of Action 21

The Dialectically Necessary Method 42

2. THE NORMATIVE STRUCTURE OF ACTION 48

Purposiveness and Goods 48

Generic Rights and Right-Claims 63

The Criterion of Relevant Similarities 104

3. THE PRINCIPLE OF GENERIC CONSISTENCY 129

The Derivation of the Principle 129

The Formal Necessity of the Principle 150

The Material Necessity of the Principle 161

Analytic Truth and Morality 171

Motivation and Rationality 190

4. DIRECT APPLICATIONS OF THE PRINCIPLE 199

Kinds of Applications and Principles 199

Equality of Generic Rights 206

Common Good and Duties regarding Basic Goods 210

The Duty to Rescue 217

Duties regarding Nonsubtractive Goods 230
Duties regarding Additive Goods 240
Duties regarding Freedom 249

5. INDIRECT APPLICATIONS OF THE PRINCIPLE 272

Social Rules and Institutions 272
Optional-Procedural Justification of Social Rules:
 Voluntary Associations 282
Static-Instrumental Justification of Social Rules:
 The Minimal State 290
Necessary-Procedural Justification of Social Rules:
 The Method of Consent 304
Dynamic-Instrumental Justification of Social Rules:
 The Supportive State 312
 The Completeness of the Principle 327
 Conflicts of Duties 338
 Some Concluding Reflections 354

NOTES 367

INDEX 381