

Contents

Introduction.....	7
MINOJI AKIMOTO
On the Decline of after and forth in Verb Phrases.....	11
ANITA AUER
Precept and Practice: The Influence of Prescriptivism on the English Subjunctive.....	33
JOAN C. BEAL / ANTHONY P. GRANT
“Make do and mend”: An Online Investigation into Processes of Neologisation and the Dearth of Borrowing in Newer English Wartime Vocabulary.....	55
CLAUDIA CLARIDGE
‘ With the most superlative felicitee ’: Functions of the Superlative in 19 th -Century English.....	73
THOMAS EGAN
Pronominal and Full Nominal Subjects in Expanding Constructions.....	91
LARISA OLDIREVA GUSTAFSSON
Irregular Verbs in 17 th - and 18 th -Century English Grammars: A Maze of Classifications.....	103
MINNA PALANDER-COLLIN / MINNA NEVALA
Reporting in 18 th -Century Letters of Hester Piozzi.....	123

GÜNTER ROHDENBURG The Role of Functional Constraints in the Evolution of the English Complementation System.....	143
ANNI SAIRIO Progressives in the Letters of Elizabeth Montagu and her Circle in 1738-1778.....	167
ELENA SEOANE Changing Styles: On the Recent Evolution of Scientific British and American English.....	191
STEFAN THIM Phrasal Verbs in Late Middle and Early Modern English: Combinations with back, down, forth, out, and up	213
INGRID TIEKEN-BOON VAN OSTADE “Disrespectful and too familiar”? Abbreviations as an Index of Politeness in 18 th -Century Letters.....	229
Index.....	249