

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS, CHARTS, AND TABLES / vii

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS / ix

INTRODUCTION

Jacqueline Cogdell DjeDje and Eddie S. Meadows / 1

I MUSIC IN AN URBAN ENVIRONMENT

1. Way out West on Central: Jazz in the African-American Community of Los Angeles before 1930
Michael B. Bakan / 23
2. "Pitchin' up a Boogie": African-American Musicians, Nightlife, and Music Venues in Los Angeles, 1930–1945
Ralph Eastman / 79
3. Oakland Blues
Part 1. Essay
Lee Hildebrand / 104
Part 2. A Conversation with Bob Geddings
James C. Moore Sr. / 112
4. The California Black Gospel Music Tradition: A Confluence of Musical Styles and Cultures
Jacqueline Cogdell DjeDje / 124

II MUSIC AND THE MEDIA

5. Insider Perspectives on the American Afrikan Popular Music Industry and Black Radio
Kiwaku Person-Lynn / 179

Part 1: The Popular Music Industry: An Interview with Al Bell / 179

Part 2: Black Radio in Los Angeles, 1980–1987:
An Interview with Pam Robinson / 197

6. California Rhythm and Blues Recordings, 1942–1972: A Diversity of Styles
Willie R. Collins / 213

7. African Americans and “Lites Out Jazz” in San Diego:
Marketing, Impact, and Criticism
Eddie S. Meadows / 244

III THE MUSICIAN AS INNOVATOR

8. Clora Bryant: Gender Issues in the Career of a West Coast Jazz Musician
Danica L. Stein / 277

9. The Gospel of Andraé Crouch: A Black Angeleno
Jean Kidula / 294

10. Brenda Holloway: Los Angeles’s Contribution to Motown
Kimasi L. Browne / 321

APPENDIX: SOURCE MATERIALS AND GUIDE TO AFRICAN-AMERICAN MUSIC, MUSICIANS, AND CULTURE IN CALIFORNIA

David Martinelli / 353

PART 1. SOURCE MATERIALS / 355

PART 2. GUIDE TO SOURCE MATERIALS / 431

CONTRIBUTORS / 449

INDEX / 455