

Contents

Foreword	5
Introduction	7
The Present Report	8
Gender, Sexuality and Consumer Culture	11
Sexuality as a Consumer Force	11
Gender Segregation as a Market Strategy	12
Gender Representation in News and Popular Media	14
Visibility as an Asset	14
Gender Representation in News	15
Gender Representation in Children's Programmes	16
Media Femininity Stresses Appearance and Sex	18
Stereotyping as a Power Mechanism	18
Tradition Versus Modernity	18
Beauty – a Core Feature	19
Beauty Becomes a Matter of Technology	20
Being an Object of Desire – a Goal of Femininity	21
When the Desired Becomes Destructive	22
Subordinated Roles	23
Media Masculinity Stresses Aggression and Power	25
Male Beauty – a New Trend	25
Body, Sexuality and Behaviour	25
Objects of Desire Surround Masculinity	26
Lack of Relationship Skills	27
Destruction and Construction	28
Superior but Sometimes Inhuman	29

Gendered Use of Media	30
Some Factors Influencing Media Intake	30
Children Not Victims of Exposure	31
Girls and Gendered Behaviour	32
Impact on Gender Role Stereotyping	32
Impact on Gender Role Attitudes	33
Impact on Viewers' Preferences for Stereotypical Activities and Occupations	33
Influence on Gender-related Behaviour	34
Negotiating Gender Roles	36
Concluding Words	39
Notes	41
References	42
Appendix 1. Guidelines and Principles for Reporting on Issues Involving Children (IFJ)	47
Appendix 2. Gender Sensitive Reporting (UNESCO)	53