Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction xiii
Making the Case for Transformation xiii
Box 0.1 Characteristics of Ethically Decoupled and Ethically Transformed Organizations xv
Box 0.2 From Cowgirl to Supreme Court Justice xviii
Defining Ethics in the Workplace xx
Box 0.3 Case Study: Blurring the Line Between Profits and Nonprofits xxiii
Looking Ahead xxv
Endnotes xxvi

PART I. LAYING AN ETHICAL FOUNDATION

1. Ethical Perspectives 3
Chapter Preview 3
Utilitarianism: Do the Greatest Good for the Greatest Number 4
Evaluation 5
Box 1.1 Case Study: Stronger, Faster, Bigger: Sacrificing the Future for High Performance 5
Kant’s Categorical Imperative: Do What’s Right No Matter What the Consequences Are 8
Evaluation 8
Rawls’s Justice as Fairness: Balancing Freedom and Equality 9
Evaluation 11
Communitarianism: Promoting Shared Moral Values 13
Evaluation 16
Altruism: Concern for Others 17
Box 1.2 The Rabbi Goes to Heaven 18
PART II. TRANSFORMING INDIVIDUAL ETHICS IN THE ORGANIZATION

2. Personal Ethical Development

   Chapter Preview
   Components of Personal Ethical Development
      Component 1: Facing the Shadow Side of the Personality
      Component 2: Discovering Vocation
   Box 2.1 Holland's Personality and Career Types
   Box 2.2 Case Study: Pam's Choice
      Component 3: Identifying Personal Values
   Box 2.3 Self-Assessment: Schwartz's Value System
      Component 4: Developing Character
      Component 5: Drawing Upon Spiritual Resources
   Box 2.4 Workplace Spirituality: Definitional Threads

   Transformation in Action:
      Advanced Change Theory
         Envision the Productive Community
         First Look Within
         Embrace the Hypocritical Self
         Transcend Fear
         Embody a Vision of the Common Good
         Disturb the System
         Surrender to the Emergent Process
         Entice Through Moral Power

   Implications
   Application Projects
   Chapter End Case: Heroism in the Twin Towers
   Endnotes

3. Ethical Decision Making and Action

   Chapter Preview
   Components of Ethical Behavior
      Component 1: Moral Sensitivity (Recognition)
      Component 2: Moral Judgment
   Box 3.1 Stages of Moral Development
   Box 3.2 Self-Assessment: Ego-Busting Questions

Component 3: Moral Motivation
Component 4: Moral Character
Decision-Making Formats
Kidder's Ethical Checkpoints
Box 3.3 Case Study: A Violation of Etiquette or Ethics?
The Moral Compass
The Five "I" Format
Implications
Application Projects
Chapter End Case: Scenarios for Analysis
Endnotes

PART III. TRANSFORMING INTERPERSONAL ETHICS IN THE ORGANIZATION

4. Ethical Interpersonal Communication
Chapter Preview
Dialogue: An Ethical Framework for Interpersonal Communication
Ethical Communication Competencies
Mindfulness
Box 4.1 Mindlessness Meets Mindfulness:
Napoleon Versus the Russian Bear
Effective Listening
Box 4.2 Listening Skills
Confirmation
Emotional Intelligence
Box 4.3 Self-Assessment: Emotional Analysis Questions
Trust Building
Box 4.4 Case Study: Taking Credit When Credit's Not Due
Conflict Management Skills
Implications
Application Projects
Chapter End Case: Opening Conversational Doors With a Chair
Endnotes

5. Exercising Ethical Influence
Chapter Preview
Questions of Power
Question 1: Are Some Forms of Power More Ethical Than Others?
Box 5.1 Self-Assessment: Personal Power Profile
Question 2: Is It Possible to Have Too Much Power?
Question 3: How Do I Use Power Wisely?
Question 4: What Factors Contribute to Empowerment?
Question 5: How Do I Overcome Barriers to Empowerment? 123
Ethical Issues in Influence 124
Impression Management 125
Box 5.2 Impression Management Tactics 126
Box 5.3 Case Study: To Pad or Not to Pad 128
Emotional Labor 131
Communication of Expectations 133
Implications 136
Application Projects 137
Chapter End Case: An Intimidator at the U.N. 138
Endnotes 139

PART IV. TRANSFORMING GROUP AND LEADERSHIP ETHICS

6. Improving Group Ethical Performance 145
   Chapter Preview 145
   Box 6.1 Case Study: A Miracle of Cooperation 146
   Acting as a Morally Responsible Team Member 148
      Adopting a Cooperative Orientation 148
      Doing Your Fair Share (Not Loafing) 149
   Box 6.2 Self-Assessment: Social Loafing Scale 149
      Displaying Openness and Supportiveness 152
      Being Willing to Stand Alone 153
   Responding to Ethical Danger Signs 154
      Groupthink 154
      Mismanaged Agreement 158
      Escalating Commitment 160
      Excessive Control 160
      Moral Exclusion 162
   Implications 164
   Application Projects 165
   Chapter End Case: Moral Exclusion at Abu Ghraib 165
   Endnotes 168

7. Leadership and Followership Ethics 171
   Chapter Preview 171
   The Ethical Challenges of Leadership and Followership 172
      The Ethical Challenges of Leadership 173
   Box 7.1 Case Study: Clueless in the Boardroom 174
      The Ethical Challenges of Followership 178
   Meeting the Moral Demands of Leadership: 180
      Normative Leadership Theories 182
Transformational Leadership 182
Servant Leadership 184
Relational Leadership 187
Meeting the Moral Demands of Followership: 188
Principles and Strategies 188
Exemplary Followership 188
Box 7.2 Self-Assessment: Followership Styles 189
Courageous Followership 193
Whistle-Blowing 195
Box 7.3 The Whistle-Blower Checklist 197
Implications 198
Application Projects 199
Chapter End Case: Courage Under Fire: 199
Hugh Thompson at My Lai
Endnotes 201

PART V. TRANSFORMING THE ETHICS OF ORGANIZATIONAL SYSTEMS

8. Combating Destructive Behavior 207
Chapter Preview 207
Confronting Problematic Behaviors 208
Deception 208
Box 8.1 Case Study: This Train Isn’t Leaving the Station 208
Invasion of Privacy 211
Reducing Antisocial Behavior 213
Incivility 214
Box 8.2 Self-Assessment: Workplace Incivility Scale 214
Aggression 216
Box 8.3 Forms of Aggressive Behavior 217
Sexual Harassment 221
Discrimination 224
Implications 226
Application Projects 227
Chapter End Case: Antisocial Behavior Scenarios 228
Endnotes 230

9. Building an Ethical Workplace 233
Chapter Preview 233
Components of Ethical Culture 233
Formal Elements 234
Box 9.1 Sample Mission Statements 239
Informal Elements 241
Box 9.2 Case Study: Sending Mixed Signals at Boeing 243
10. Promoting Organizational Citizenship in a Global Society

Chapter Preview

The Organization as Citizen

Promoting Organizational Citizenship

Box 10.1 Organizational Stakeholders
Box 10.2 The Four Stages of Issue Maturity

Measuring Social Performance

Box 10.3 Case Study: Social Responsibility at Starbucks
Box 10.4 Self-Assessment: Sustainability Portfolio

Ethical Global Citizenship

The Dark Side of Globalization and the Dilemmas of Ethical Diversity

Coming to Grips With Ethnocentrism

Finding Moral Common Ground

Box 10.5 United Nations Secretary General:
The Global Compact

Resolving Ethical Conflicts:

Integrated Social Contracts Theory

Implications
Application Projects
Chapter End Case: Nike Becomes a Global Citizen
Endnotes

References

Index

About the Author