

Contents

Foreword

John Elliott	11
--------------------	----

Introduction

1. Approaching Reflective Practice in Environmental Education.....	15
2. Respecting Teachers' Ways of Knowing and Learning.....	23
3. Introducing Ten Case Studies of Environmental Education	39

Ten Case studies

4. Implementing Cross-Curricular Themes Réka Bereczky, Hungary.....	53
5. Project i: Interdisciplinary Curriculum Development in Upper Secondary Schools Hugo Caviola and Regula Kyburz-Graber, Switzerland.....	73
6. Sustainable Development in Focus – A Ten-Week Course in Teacher Training Anders Claesson and Maria Pettersson, Sweden	87
7. Interdisciplinary Environmental Education within the Training of Teachers for Biology and Physics Development and Evaluation of a Practical Course at the University of Vienna Doris Elster, Austria	101
8. Many-Sided Evaluation through Action Research and Environmental Education in the Practice of Teacher Education Mária Füzsné Kószó, Hungary	113

9. An Interdisciplinary Course in Sustainability for all Teacher Students in Växjö, Sweden Barbro Gustafsson, Sweden	129
10. Ecosustainability and Quality in the School System: Schools and Environmental Education Centres as Partners in an Action Research Process Michela Mayer, Italy	139
11. Cooperation in Teacher Education between University and Schools – the First Five Years Friedrich Palencsar and Heribert Altziebler, Austria	155
12. Complex Environmental Knowledge in Teacher Education – Learning and Studying Across Subjects Franz Radits and Kurt Allabauer, Austria	167
13. The Interdisciplinary Project “Expedition to Cultural Landscapes” A Teacher Education Module for Nature Experience and Environmental Education Martin Scheuch, Günther Pass, Franz M. Grünweis and Thomas Wrбка, Austria.....	183

Emerging Issues

14. Emerging Issues of Environmental Education.....	195
15. Emerging Issues in Action Research.....	229
16. Emerging Issues in Interdisciplinary and Inter-Institutional Cooperation.....	245

Using the book

17. Writing Your Own Case Study	273
---------------------------------------	-----

Reading Chapters

18. Research Issues in Environmental Education Peter Posch	279
19. The OECD-ENSI Project and its Relevance for Teacher Training Concepts in Environmental Education Regula Kyburz-Graber and Ian Robottom	309
20. Constructivism in Environmental Education beyond Conceptual Change Theory Ian Robottom.....	335
21. Does Case-Study Methodology Lack Rigour? The Need for Quality Criteria for Sound Case-Study Research, as Illustrated by a Recent Case in Secondary and Higher Education Regula Kyburz-Graber	349
References	367
Guidelines for the Description of Country Initiatives	379
About the Editors	381