

CONTENTS

Foreword by Alice Tepper Marlin, CEP	xi
About the authors	xv
Acknowledgements	xvii
INTRODUCTION: What is corporate citizenship?	xix

1

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY IN A GLOBAL ECONOMY

Introduction	3
Examples of global organizations	4
Levi Strauss & Co. · Nesté · Greenpeace · NEC · UK Ministry of Defence · Marks & Spencer	4
Some everyday events for individuals	6
The global economy and changing perspectives	7
Global sourcing	9
Arbor International: supplying baby corn from the local to the local via the global	11
The reverse brain drain – IT from India	11
The floral revolution in Colombia – Ecoflor	12
Global governance and the trade in illegal drugs	13
The developing world – rich and poor	14
What has become globalized?	18
Communicating in a global economy: learn to speak locally and globally	20
More globalization? What's the end game?	22
Global and corporate governance	23
The global company	24
What is the difference between international, multinational, transnational, supranational and global companies?	26
MANAGEMENT EXERCISES	27
1 Two views of globalization	27
2 Dilemma: a sticky situation	28
3 Ethical dilemma: what would you do?	29
4 Dilemma: Chinese bags	29

THE NEW CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP

Introduction	35
Avon: managing in a multicultural world	37
London's Metropolitan Police	37
Who said this?	38
Corporate citizenship is for all organizations	40
Shell's global responsibilities	40
Economic, legal, social and environmental responsibilities	40
Renlon: winning new business	42
Moving up to social accountability: BT's social audit	42
Tomorrow's organization	43
Interest in social responsibility	43
Business for Social Responsibility (USA)	44
The Charter for Good Corporate Behavior (Japan)	45
The Asabi Foundation (Japan)	46
The Centre for Tomorrow's Company (UK)	47
Business as partners in development: The Prince of Wales Business Leaders' Forum, The World Bank and The UN Development Programme	48
The World Business Council for Sustainable Development: Draft Principles for Social Responsibility	49
Models of social responsibility	50
The Big Issue: an alternative business on the streets	51
Medecins sans Frontières: borderless care	53
MANAGEMENT EXERCISES	55

PUTTING CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP AT THE HEART OF STRATEGY

Introduction	61
Brand image and reputation	61
Protecting reputations	65
Mercedes-Benz · Ford Pinto · British Airways · Heineken · Prudential Assurance · Barclays Bank · Dow Corning	65
Managing risk	68
Bhopal and Union Carbide	69
Prince William Sound and Exxon	71

Quality, productivity and social responsibility	72
Quality and productivity: Premier Beverages	73
The learning organization	74
Successful strategies of long-lived companies	75
MANAGEMENT EXERCISES	76
1 Risk assessment and social responsibility	76
2 Company mission	77

4

CRITICAL ISSUES IN CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP

Introduction	83
Corporate governance	85
Campbell's soup	90
CALPERS	90
The Cadbury Committee: the financial aspects of corporate governance	91
The Hampel Committee on Corporate Governance	92
The environment	95
The environment and the last 30 years	96
The Natural Step	98
The Coalition for Environmentally Responsible Economies: the CERES principles	103
The International Chamber of Commerce: Business Charter for Sustainable Development	104
Scandic Hotels: practising the Natural Step	105
Merck: investing in the rainforest	106
Century Textiles: greening the company secures key export markets	107
NatWest, Marks & Spencer. Bath Environment Centre, local government and the community – a partnership for the environment	108
Nortel: sharing technology	110
Novo Nordisk: dialogue with the stakeholders	111
SmithKline Beecham: cutting costs, cutting waste	112
The Tagua Initiative: may a thousand tagua buttons bloom!	112
Human rights and the workplace	113
The UN's 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights	117
Amnesty International: monitoring human-rights abuses globally	119
BP in Colombia	120
Shell in Nigeria	122
The International Labour Organisation	126

Nike	129
Levi Strauss & Co.: guidelines for country selection	131
The Apparel Industry Partnership	132
The Abrinq Foundation: rewarding child-friendly companies	132
Opportunity 2000	136
Churchill & Friend's disabled customer-care audit	140
Sexual harassment and ethics training in the US Army	145
Racism and sexual harassment in the British military: the changing of the guard	146
The National AIDS Trust Employment Initiative (UK) – a business charter for HIV/AIDS: Companies act!	148
Fair trade and ethical investment	150
Cafédirect: a story of fair trade	151
Max Havelaar: another success of fair trade	153
The Ethical Trading Initiative	154
Christian Aid's fair-trade campaign: how does your supermarket rate?	154
FairTrade	155
The Body Shop: are the fair-trade initiatives just cosmetic?	156
The Co-operative Bank: investing with a conscience	164
VanCity	166
The arms trade	167
Anti-personnel landmines: the Red Cross/Red Crescent campaign	169
Tobacco	172
Animal welfare and protection	173
Humane treatment of livestock: Hormel and Land O'Lakes	175
Animal testing: Tom's of Maine	175
The RSPB: over 100 years old and 1 million members	176
Education	177
MANAGEMENT EXERCISES	180
1 Dilemma: alcopops	180
2 Dilemma: employment	181
3 Dilemma: HIV in the kitchen	182
4 Corporate killing in the UK	183

5

MANAGING CORPORATE CITIZENSHIP

Introduction	193
Key relationships and stakeholders	193

Who are stakeholders?	198
Out of touch with stakeholders? The House of Windsor and the death of Diana, Princess of Wales	200
In touch with stakeholders? Environmental reporting for IBM (UK)	201
Environmental Risk Assessment for Sustainable Cities: UNEP International Technology Center	203
Stakeholder management in military healthcare: the US Department of Defense	203
Traidcraft plc	204
The inclusive company	206
McKay Nursery Co.: responsibility to migrant workers	207
VW's "workholders"	207
Manganese Steel: closure and close-out are not the only options	208
Business and communities	209
The global and the local: Marks & Spencer's secondment policy	210
Levi Strauss & Co.'s Community Investment Team	211
Building Timberland in the USA	212
The London Benchmarking Group	213
The Corporate Community Index	214
Bata Thailand and the Thai Business Initiative in Rural Development: shoe-in	215
Auchan: combating gang warfare	216
Unilever in Uttar Pradesh	216
Fondo Social del Empresariado Chihuahuense (Chihuabua's Business Social Trust)	217
Phillips Van Heusen	218
Building partnerships	219
A partnership for progress: McDonald's and the Environmental Defense Fund	219
A partnership in progress: Marine Stewardship Council (MSC)	225
Re-measuring wealth: auditing and accountability	227
Auditing business performance	232
Environmental auditing	234
Social and ethical auditing	237
BT's social audit: working within a "robust ethical framework"	238
The ethical audit	239
The Co-operative Bank's ethical audit of customers and non-customers	239
The Co-op's survey of ethics in business	240
The Body Shop: social-responsibility criteria	241

The social audit	241
New Economics Foundation	243
Accounting for a change: KPMG	244
The CARE framework: Price Waterhouse	245
The Body Shop's social audit	246
A new global standard for social accountability: SA8000	246
The CEPAA's guide to SA8000	249
SGS Yarsley and the development of SA8000	249
Developing global standards	249
Reporting company performance	251
Corporate environmental disclosure:
The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants	253
Managing the media: how to survive a boycott	255
Lessons from "McLibel"	257
MANAGEMENT EXERCISES	257
1 Identifying your stakeholders	258
2 Do you know what your stakeholders think of you?	259
3 Auditing dilemmas	260
(a) Ventilating an accountability issue in China	260
(b) Keeping it in the family, Chinese style	261
(c) House and home in Manila	262

6

BUSINESS AS IF THERE'S A FUTURE

It is possible to envision different futures	271
Managing change and complexity	272
Five principles for corporate citizenship	277
Five management imperatives for corporate citizenship	278
Appendix 1: recommended reading	281
Appendix 2: glossary	283
Appendix 3: contact addresses	291
Index	305