PART TWO:

THE 21 RULES OF NEGOTIATING

6. The Critical Rules	49
Rule 1: No free gifts! Seek a trade-off
("OK, if . . .") for each concession you make.	49

Rule 2: Start high.	58
Rule 3: Follow a dramatic initial concession with sharply diminishing concessions.	67
Rule 4: Krunch early and often.	86
Rule 5: Never settle issues individually. Settle all issues as a package—only as a package—at the end.	100
Rule 6: Conclude with a nibble.	103
Rule 7: Keep looking for creative (high value–low cost) concessions to trade.	110
7. The Important but Obvious Rules	122
Rule 8: Do your homework.	122
Rule 9: Keep the climate positive.	127
Rule 10: Never assume that an issue is non-negotiable just because the other side says it is. In reality, almost everything is negotiable.	135
Rule 11: Never accept the other side's first offer.	141
8. The Nice to Do Rules	146
Rule 12: Start slowly.	146
Rule 13: Set a complete agenda.	149
Rule 14: Discuss the small things first.	152
Rule 15: Be patient.	154
Rule 16: Use/beware the power of legitimacy.	157
Rule 17: Keep your authority limited. Try to negotiate against people with higher authority.	161
Rule 18: Consider using good guy–bad guy.	168
Rule 19: Try to have the other side make the first offer.	171
Rule 20: Keep your team small and under control.	175
Rule 21: Try to have the other side travel to you.	181
9. Putting It All Together	184
