

Contents

Prologue: From the Cleared Land 1

PART I. MYTHS

Chapter 1. The Making of a Myth: Tieck and Schlegel's
Editing of the Novalis Writings 11

Chapter 2. The Making of Sophie 27

The Problem with Sophie 27

Before Sophie: "Fritz the Flatterer" 30

Courtship with Sophie 36

Sophie's Illness/Klarisse 44

Early Mourning 47

Visions of Mourning: The Journal 56

After Sophie: Julie von Charpentier 66

Sophie, the Ideal, and Beyond 71

PART II. THEORY

Chapter 3: From Filosofie to Fiction: Language and Semiotics in the Fichte Studies 77

Sofie and Filosofie 77

"Fichtecizing": From Philosophy to Semiotics 81

Fichte's Essay "On the Faculty of Speech and the Origin of Language" 89

Hardenberg's Semiotic Fragment 97

The Power of Language 106

PART III. PRACTICE

Chapter 4. The Richly Sown Field: Writings of 1798 121

1798: Texts / Pretexts / Contexts 121

Logological Fragments, Poeticisms, and Poësie 130*Pollen / Mixed Observations* 143Ideal Politics: Flowers, Faith and Love, and the Political Aphorisms 161The Nature of Language and the Language of Nature: The Monologue, The Novices of Saïs, and the Dialogues 193

Chapter 5. Romantic Religion: 1799–1800 216

Romantic Irreligion: "Religion—Jesus etc." 216

Europa 227The Song Book 245*Hymns to the Night* 256Chapter 6. Heinrich von Aferdingen and the Legitimations of Poesy 273

"My political novel" 273

Atlantis in Plato's Critias and Timaeus 277

The Poet as Citizen 279

The Poet as Subversive 286

Arion and Atlantis 290

Poetry and Legitimation 296

Klingsohr's Fairy Tale 302

Postscript: The End of Words 313

Notes 319

Bibliography 359

Acknowledgments 367

Index 369