

CONTENTS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Acknowledgements . . . . .  | 7   |
| CHAPTER I. Kinesis—The Idea of Becoming . . . . .  | 11  |
| A. Introduction . . . . .   | 11  |
| B. Stefan George . . . . .  | 12  |
| C. The Circle . . . . .   | 21  |
| 1. The Cosmic View of life—Klages . . . . .   | 21  |
| 2. Gundolf and the Language of Poetry . . . . .   | 29  |
| 3. Historiography and the Nature of HistoricalOccasions—Gundolf and Bertram . . . . .       | 31  |
| CHAPTER II. Stasis—The Idea of Permanence and Formin the Poetry of George . . . . . | 40  |
| CHAPTER III. The Idea of Significant Form in the Work ofFriedrich Wolters . . . . . | 51  |
| A. The Gestalt -Concept . . . . .  | 51  |
| B. Wolters's Notion of Gestalt . . . . .   | 52  |
| CHAPTER IV. The Idea of Significant Form in the Work ofFriedrich Gundolf . . . . .  | 62  |
| A. Introduction . . . . .   | 62  |
| B. The Philosophical Implications of Significant Form . . . . .                                 | 64  |
| C. Absoluteness versus Relativity . . . . .   | 81  |
| CHAPTER V. The Attitude of Stefan George to Music . . . . .                              | 107 |
| A. Letters and Conversations . . . . .  | 108 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| B. Poems . . . . .  | 122 |
| CHAPTER VI. The George Circle and Music . . . . .                            | 140 |
| A. Erich Wolff and Carl Petersen . . . . .  | 140 |
| B. Karl Wolfskehl . . . . .   | 159 |
| CHAPTER VII. Exploring the Borderland between Poetryand Music . . . . . | 173 |
| A. The Dance . . . . .  | 173 |
| B. The Speaking of Verse . . . . .  | 191 |
| Bibliography . . . . .  | 204 |