

CONTENTS

	page
INTRODUCTION	I
I. SIMPLICITY AND WHOLENESS
A. The ideal of an organic culture	12
B. 'Intellectus archetypus'	25
II. THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE
A. Volkslied or Kunstlied ?	37
B. Ballad, folklore, legend	53
C. Dance	69
III. REVOLUTION AND UTOPIA
A. Minnedienst	73
B. Saint-Simonism	76
C. The Left Hegelian	86
X D. Utopia	101
IV. PESSIMISM AND ART
A. Human history—progress or futility?	108
B. The art of ambivalence— Ideen. Das Buch Le Grand	111
C. The poem cycle— Die Nordsee I & II	117
D. The Reisebild —from Bacharach to Genoa	122
E. The itinerant—Don Quixote, the Wandering Jew, the Flying Dutchman	126
V. POETRY AND POLITICS
A. In the shadow of Goethe	137
B. The poet and the party—Börne and the Republicans	147
C. Marx and the Communists	151
VI. KING AND MARTYR
A. The sovereignty of the genius	160
B. Heine's Todesgesang	177
X CONCLUSION. The creative personality	187
BIBLIOGRAPHY	194
INDEX	205