

CONTENTS

	Page
Introduction	1
CHAPTER I:
Landscape	28
CHAPTER II:
Rodin	39
CHAPTER III:
Neue Gedichte	65
CHAPTER IV:
The "Crisis" in Perception: 1912-14	92
A. Erlebnis I and II in the Context of the Eighth Duineser Elegie : The Relation of the Essays to "das Offene"	111
Excursuses:
I. Rilke's Sonnet "Sei allem Abschied voran"	128
II. The Concept of "Womb-Space"	131
CHAPTER V:
The "Physiognomic" Experience of Reality in Rilke's Poetry:
The Face and the Physical Cosmos	133
A. Rilke's Constellation Figure Interpreted in the Context of Symbolic Motion: The Figure of Motion as a Symbolic Structure in Rilke's Poetry	159
CHAPTER VI:
The "Symbolistic" Perception of Reality: Prolegomena to a Theory of the Poetic Image	167
A. The Poem as Image-Field Structure: Image-Field as a Governing Hypothesis for the Interpretation of the Poetic Image	167

1. Analysis of Die Sonette an Orpheus , Zweiter Teil, XX ("Zwischen den Sternen, wie weit . . .")	169
2. Analysis of "Auch dieses ein Zeichen im Raum . . ."	190
3. The Image structure of Poetry Viewed in Terms of its Semantic Function: "Auch dieses ein Zeichen im Raum . . ." as an Intentional Structure of Meaning . .	202
B. The Modalities of the Poetic Image: The Interrelationship between Concrete Imagery and Abstract Word-Ciphers in the Context of Die Sonette an Orpheus , Erster Teil, I ("Da stieg ein Baum . . .")	206
4. Summary and Conclusion	221
Excursuses:
III. The Image-Field in its Relation to Linguistic Theory	230
IV. The Theory of Intentionality: Ingarden's Definition in Das literarische Kunstwerk	235
V. De Saussure's Definition of the Linguistic Sign: The Verbal Sign in Contradistinction to Non-Verbal Signs .	240
VI. The Referential Function of Verbal Signs	244
A Selected Bibliography	250