

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Acknowledgement and dedication	x
Foreword	xi

PART ONE: BEFORE 1840

1	The beginnings	3
2	Mr Locke and Mr Newbery	12
3	Rousseau and the lady writers	20
4	Fact and fancy	30

PART TWO: 1840–1915

5	Nineteenth-century adventures	39
6	Domestic dramas	54
7	Imagination rehabilitated	67
8	The never-lands	76
9	The world of school	85
10	Articulate animals	94
11	Writers in rhyme	103
12	Pictures that tell a story	112

PART THREE: 1915–1945

13	Fantasy between the wars	127
14	History and brass tacks	141
15	Craftsmen in two media	155

PART FOUR: 1945–1994

16	The turbulent years	167
17	Britons and their past	176
18	After 'Johnny Tremain'	189
19	Re-expanding the far horizons	198
20	Modern fantasy (i): Just like us	213
21	Modern fantasy (ii): Imagined lands	223

Contents (contd.)

22	Modern fantasy (iii): On the margin	238
23	Realism, British-style	251
24	Realism, American-style	269
25	How young is an adult?	281
26	Around the world	290
27	Virtuosity in verse	307
28	Picture books in bloom: USA	318
29	Picture books in bloom: Britain	332
30	What next?	347
	Notes	350
	Bibliography	358
	Index	370