

Contents

Mediating between concepts and language – Processing structures Heike Tappe and Holden Härtl	1
---	---

Mediating between non-linguistic and linguistic structures

Coordination of eye gaze and speech in sentence production Femke F. van der Meulen	39
---	----

Time patterns in visual reception and written phrase production Philip Cummins, Boris Gutbrod and Rüdiger Weingarten	65
---	----

Animacy effects in language production: From mental model to formulator Kathy Y. van Nice and Rainer Dietrich	101
--	-----

Incremental preverbal messages Markus Guhe	119
--	-----

Word order scrambling as a consequence of incremental sentence production Gerard Kempen and Karin Harbusch	141
---	-----

The linearization of argument DPs and its semantic reflection Andreas Späth	165
--	-----

Semantics as a gateway to language Heike Wiese	197
Mediating between event conceptualization and verbalization	223
Temporal relations between event concepts Elke van der Meer, Reinhard Beyer, Herbert Hagedorf, Dirk Strauch and Matthias Kolbe	225
Segmenting event sequences for speaking Ralf Nüse	255
Events: Processing and neurological properties Maria Mercedes Piñango	277
Aspectual (re-)interpretation: Structural representation and processing Johannes Dölling	303
Type coercion from a natural language generation point of view Markus Egg and Kristina Striegnitz	323
The mediating function of the lexicon	349
The thematic interpretation of plural nominalizations Veronika Ehrich	351
Competing principles in the lexicon Andrea Schalley	379

Concepts of motion and their linguistic encoding Ladina B. Tschander	405
Too abstract for agents? The syntax and semantics of agentivity in abstracts of English research articles Heidrun Dorgeloh and Anja Wanner	433
Index of names	457
Index of subjects	463