

CONTENTS

	Page
Introduction	7
Chapter 1 : Epistemology and Aesthetics	17
Fundamental Concerns	17
Plato's Influence	18
Shaftesbury's Influence	20
Wieland's "Transformation"	23
Wieland's Minor Writings	26
Chapter 2 : Don Sylvio : Fantasy and Reality	43
Latent Earnestness	43
Imagination and Reality	44
Perceptual Relativity and Irony	48
Structural Considerations	49
Einbildung and Empfindung	53
Intuition	54
Satire, Philosophy and the Imagination	59
Wieland's View of Man	64
Chapter 3 : Agathon : Idealism versus Materialism	71
Don Sylvio and Agathon	71
Structural Considerations	73
Irony	73
Narrative Style	76
Agathon's Epistemology and Ontology	77
Danae and Psyche	98
Romanwirklichkeit	100
Chapter 4 : Peregrinus Proteus : Enthusiasm and Gnosis	107
Vindication of the Fantast	107
Psychogenetical Parallels	110
Structure and Style	112
Epistemology	124
Conclusions	133
Chapter 5 : Agathodämon : Deus in nobis	141
Autobiographical Significance	141
Structure and Style	142
Epistemology and Final Concept of Man	143
Das Dämonische	144
Innere Form	147
Conclusion	153
Bibliography	159