

Contents

Acknowledgements	v
List of Abbreviations and Glossary of Terms	vii
List of Archives and Archival Abbreviations	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
Foreword by Professor Pavel Seifter (Czech Ambassador to the UK, 1997–2003)	xiii
1 Revolution and Resistance in Eastern Europe: An Overview Kevin McDermott and Matthew Stibbe	1
Part I
2 The Soviet-Yugoslav Split Leonid Gibianskii	17
3 The SED, German Communism and the June 1953 Uprising: New Trends and New Research Matthew Stibbe	37
4 Poland and Hungary, 1956: A Comparative Essay Based on New Archival Findings Johanna Granville	57
Part II
5 Romania, 1945–89: Resistance, Protest and Dissent Dennis Deletant	81
6 The Prague Spring: From Elite Liberalisation to Mass Movement Kieran Williams	101

7	Solidarity, 1980–1: The Second Vistula Miracle? Bartosz Kaliski	119
Part III
8	Negotiated Revolution in Poland and Hungary, 1989 Nigel Swain	139
9	‘To Learn from the Soviet Union is to Learn How to Win’: The East German Revolution, 1989–90 Peter Grieder	157
10	Revolution and Revolt against Revolution: Czechoslovakia, 1989 James Krapfl	175
11	Afterword: East or West? Tony Kemp-Welch	195
	Index	205