

Table of Contents

Gerd Stratmann
The Contextual Functions of Literature: The Concept and its Prophet	1
Theo Stemmler
The Peasants' Revolt of 1381 in Contemporary Literature	21
Hans-Jürgen Diller
"For Engelondes sake": Richard II and Henry of Lancaster as Intended Readers of Gower's Confessio Amantis	39
Karl Heinz Göller
The Figure of King Arthur as a Mirror of Political and Religious Views	55
Dieter Mehl
Robert Henrysons's Moral Fables as Experiments in Didactic Narrative	81
Rüdiger Ahrens
The Poetics of the Renaissance and the System of Literary Genres	101
Karl Joseph Höltgen
The English Reformation and Some Jacobean Writers on Art	119
Hans-Joachim Zimmermann
Simia Laureatus: Lord Rochester Crowning a Monkey	147
Wolfgang Franke †
Richardson's Grandison as a Novel for Debate	173

Ria Omasreiter

Maria Edgeworth's Tales: A Contribution to the Science of Happiness 195

Rainer Schöwerling

Forms and Functions of Popular Literature in Early 19th-Century
England 209

Paul Goetsch

The Sunday in Victorian Literature 227

Dieter Petzold

The Respectable Adventurers: Some Functions of Adventure
Stories, Predominantly in the Nineteenth Century 251

Eberhard Späth

P. G. Wodehouse's Jeeves: The Butler as Superman 269

Willi Erzgräber

Function and Form of Virginia Woolf's Novels 283

Ulrich Broich

William Golding and the Religious Function of Literature 305