

Contents

Preface to the English Edition	vii
I. Analytical Part
– 1. Reasons for the Choice of Method	3
2. Definition of Freudian Negation	8
3. The Model of Freudian Negation and Phèdre	11
4. The Historical Question of Myth and the Symbolic Negations	21
5. A System of Symbolic Negations	29
6. Symbolic Negations of the Physical Order (First and Fourth)	40
7. Symbolic Negations of the Verbal Order (Second and Fifth)	59
8. Symbolic Negations of the Institutional Order (Third and Sixth)	81
9. The Ultimate Negation: Two Comparisons with Other Texts	108
II. Theoretical Part
10. Limits of the Field and Aims of the Method	123
11. Toward a Definition of the Return of the Repressed in Literature	137
12. Freud's Approach and the Formal Return of the Repressed	146
13. Literature between an Excess and a Lack of Rhetoric	161
14. The Return of the Repressed in the Series of Contents	176
Appendixes
1. The Compromise-Formation as a Freudian Model	191
2. Constants, Variants, and Misreadings	200
3. Definition of Literature and Literature as an Institution	204
4. Literary Identification and Established Order	207
5. On the Intellectual Division of Labor	213