

Table of Contents

1.	Introduction .....	5
1.1	Embeddedness of Economic Trade in Social Relations .....	5
1.2	Outline of the Argument .....	7
2.	The Social System of Kula Exchange .....	9
3.	The General Problem of Explanation: Social Order, Barter and Ceremonial Exchange .....	14
4.	The Methodological Approach .....	16
4.1	Aims and Limitations of the Simulation Model .....	16
4.2	Game-Theoretical Analysis of Strategic Situations and Derived Strategies of Behavior .....	17
5.	The Empirical Data .....	18
5.1	The "Empirically Observed" Kula Ring .....	18
5.2	Empirical Boundary Conditions .....	24
5.3	Measures of "Goodness-of-Fit" .....	25
6.	Process I: The Development of an Economic Trading Network .....	30
6.1	Conditions of Successful Trade: Double Coincidence of Wants .....	30
6.2	The Importance of Trading by Middlemen .....	31
6.3	Comparison with Previous Models .....	32
7.	Process II: The Spread of Peaceful Relationships .....	36
7.1	The Basic Prerequisites of Peaceful Trade: Recognizing Property Rights and Creating Trust .....	36
7.2	Types of Cooperative and Defecting Strategies .....	37
7.3	The Importance of Expectations, Reputation and Trust ....	41
8.	Process III: The Evolution of a Ceremonial Exchange Network .....	45
8.1	The Kula as a Signaling System of Peaceful Intentions ...	45
8.2	Reducing Uncertainty about the Stability of Peaceful Relationships .....	47
8.3	Basic Problems of a Signaling System: Cheating and Trust .....	49
8.4	The Preventive Role of Reputation .....	56

9.	Emergence and Co-Evolution of a Peaceful Economic and Ceremonial Exchange System .....	60
9.1	Basic Structure of the Simulation Model .....	62
9.2	Results of the Baseline Simulation Model .....	67
9.3	Distinguishing Among Historical Phases of Development .....	72
9.4	Co-Evolution of the Kula Ring: Bi-Furcation and Path Dependence .....	75
9.5	The Stability of Fixed Points .....	85
9.6	Some Remarks on the Status-Enhancing Function of Kula Exchange .....	87
10.	Some Counterfactual Scenarios .....	89
10.1	Randomization of Boundary Conditions .....	89
10.2	Why only Two Valuables? .....	93
11.	What Happened to the Kula Ring? .....	98
12.	Concluding Remarks .....	101
12.1	Summary and Discussion of Results .....	101
12.2	Limits and Future Directions .....	104
	Appendix: Empirical Boundary Conditions .....	106
A.1	Geographic Distances Among the 18 Kula Communities	106
A.2	Location of Production of Goods .....	107
A.3	Location of Demand for Goods .....	112
	References .....	117