

Contents

Part I. Baroque: Word and Concept	1
Part II. Time as a Means of Structure	19
1. The Uses of Time in Poetry	21
2. A Survey of Time Patterns	32
3. Milton's "Nativity Ode"	41
4. Góngora's "Polifemo"	53
5. Milton's "Lycidas"	64
6. Summary	77
Part III. Drama as a Means of Structure	85
7. The Uses of Drama	87
8. Poems of Gryphius and Marino	99
9. Théophile's "La Solitude"	110
10. Poems of Donne	121
11. Milton's "Lycidas" Again	138
12. Summary	153
Part IV. A Speculative Conclusion	159
Texts
John Milton, "On the Morning of Christ's Nativity"	171

Luis de Góngora y Argote, "Fábula de Polifemo y Galatea"	180
John Milton, "Lycidas"	214
Giambattista Marino, "Amori notturni"	220
Théophile de Viau, "La Solitude"	224
John Donne, "Loves Growth"	231
John Donne, "The Sunne Rising"	233
John Donne, "Elegie XII: His Parting from Her"	235
John Donne, "Twicknam Garden"	239
Index	241