

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments

Preface

PART ONE: THE OLD DRAMA AND THE NEW

1. The Emerging Poetic of Modern Realism and Naturalism 3
2. Tragedy in the Theater of Realism 41

PART TWO: MAN AS AGENT AND VICTIM

3. The Experience of History as Fateful 61
4. Society and Human Passion as a Tragic Motive 100
5. After the Fall 161

PART THREE: TRAGIC THEATERS OF THE WILL

6. The Demonic Will in a Bourgeois Setting 185
7. The Purgation of the Will: Tragic Theater in the Christian Tradition 223
-  8. "Condemned to be Free": The Will in Action and Paralysis 261

PART FOUR: EPILOGUE— THE DEVALUATION OF LIFE

-  9. The Outmoded Individual 307
-  10. Condemned to Exist 334

Index

357