

Contents

List of illustrations	page viii
Preface	ix
Date list	xi
Introduction	1
Part 1 Later eighteenth-century religion
1 Church structures and ministry	9
2 Beliefs, society and worship: the expression of Christianity in Europe, c. 1750–1790	49
3 Intellectual challenges and the religious response	93
4 Church and state	134
Part 2 Revolution and its aftermath
5 Revolutions and the Churches: the initial impact	175
6 The impact of the Revolution on religious life and practice, c. 1793–1802	211
7 Religion in Napoleonic Europe, 1802–1815	258
8 Religious revival after 1815?	297
Glossary	334
Bibliographical suggestions	338
Index	349

List of illustrations

1. The consecration of Bishop Seabury. Reproduced courtesy of the Provost of Aberdeen University. page 25
2. Robert Dighton, 'The Curate'. © The British Museum. 36
3. The pulpit and box pews in Old Dilton church, Wiltshire. Photograph Christopher Dalton, Esq. Church in the care of The Churches Conservation Trust. 52
4. Pews and east-end arrangements in an eighteenth-century Anglican interior. Photograph Christopher Dalton, Esq. Church in the care of The Churches Conservation Trust. 69
5. Robert Dighton, 'Doctor Phlogiston'. © The British Museum. 96
6. Bust of Pope Clement XIV, by Christopher Hewetson. Reproduced courtesy of the V&A Picture Library. 153
7. Strasbourg Cathedral transformed into a temple of Reason. Reproduced courtesy of Musée de la Révolution française, Vizille. 212