

Contents

Acknowledgments	9
Introduction	11
1. Watches, Culture, and Society in Seventeenth-Century France	25
From Decoration to Function	25
Mapping Spaces and Keeping Time	29
Onions, Patents, and Edicts	37
Uses and Distribution of Watches	41
The Lover's Watch	44
2. Time Structures in "Les Plaisirs de l'île enchantée" and Le Tartuffe	55
Temporal Dynamics of Royal Spectacle	55
Time Structures of Le Tartuffe	72
3. Time, Postal Practices, and Daily Life in Mme de Sévigné's Letters	90
An Impatient Administration	93
Postal and Personal Practices in Mme de Sévigné	106
4. Time and Information In and Around La Princesse de Clèves : Anteriority, Communication, Interiority	143
Announcements, Debates, Criticisms	143
Timing of Courtly Maneuvers and Private Thoughts in La Princesse de Clèves	162
Epilogue	185
Notes	189
Bibliography	204
Index	210