1	Introduction .....	1
2	What is globalisation? .....	11
2.1	Characteristics of globalisation .....	11
2.1.1	Definitions of globalisation .....	12
2.1.2	Distinction between globalisation and similar concepts.....	16
2.1.2.1	Distinction between globalisation and internationalisation .....	16
2.1.2.2	Globalisation versus localisation and regionalisation .....	18
2.1.2.2.1	Globalisation and regionalisation .....	20
2.1.2.2.2	Globalisation and localisation.....	24
2.1.2.2.3	Hybrid global and local structures .....	27
2.2	Globalisation as an evolutionary historical process .....	29
2.2.1	First stage: early international trade .....	30
2.2.2	Second stage: formation of global systems .....	32
2.2.2.1	Colonialism and entrepreneurial capitalism: 15 th until mid-19 th century.....	32
2.2.2.2	Incipient globalisation: mid-18 th century to the mid-19 th century.....	34
2.2.2.3	Early economic globalisation .....	35
2.2.2.4	Full-scale globalisation: mid-20 th century – present .....	37
2.2.2.5	Development of a global economic context.....	38
2.2.2.6	Formation of MNEs and evolution of the world competitive structure .....	41
2.3	An evolutionary perspective on globalisation.....	46
2.4	Implications for a management of globalisation.....	53
2.5	Summary .....	58
3	Internationalisation .....	61
3.1	Internationalisation strategies .....	65
3.1.1	International market entry strategies .....	65
3.1.2	International business strategies .....	68
3.1.3	Multidimensional internationalisation strategy .....	74
3.1.4	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	77
3.2	Processual internationalisation theories .....	78
3.2.1	Internationalisation of ‘born globals’ .....	79
3.2.1.1	Entrepreneurs as drivers of early internationalisation.....	84
3.2.1.2	Networks as drivers of early internationalisation.....	85
3.2.2	Stage theories of internationalisation .....	88
3.2.2.1	International product life cycle (Vernon).....	89
3.2.2.2	Stage models of organisational structures.....	91

3.2.2.2.1	Stage models of activity modes in foreign markets .....	91
3.2.2.2.2	Stage models of formal organisation structures .....	93
3.2.2.2.3	Evolution of organisational cognitive structure .....	98
3.2.2.3	Learning-based stage models .....	100
3.2.2.3.1	Behavioural theory of foreign direct investment (Aharoni) .....	101
3.2.2.3.2	Uppsala School .....	101
3.2.2.3.3	Helsinki School .....	111
3.2.2.3.4	Innovation School .....	115
3.2.2.3.5	Empirical limits of incremental stage models .....	119
3.2.2.4	Discontinuous stage models of internationalisation .....	122
3.2.2.4.1	GAINS Paradigm (Macharzina/Engelhard) .....	122
3.2.2.4.2	Dynamic internationalisation theory (Kutschker) .....	124
3.2.2.4.3	Internationalisation as a strategy process .....	126
3.2.3	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	128
3.3	Resource-based theory of internationalisation .....	132
3.3.1	Extension of economic theories by resource-based view .....	132
3.3.2	Extension of incremental stage models by resource-based view .....	133
3.3.3	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	139
3.4	Summary .....	139
4	Global networks .....	142
4.1	Interorganisational networks .....	144
4.1.1	Local networks .....	144
4.1.1.1	Context and forms of local networks .....	155
4.1.1.2	Innovation in local networks .....	159
4.1.1.3	Local path-dependence .....	167
4.1.2	Business networks .....	173
4.1.3	Strategic networks .....	179
4.1.3.1	The interorganisational network as a political economy (Benson) .....	179
4.1.3.2	Networks between markets and hierarchies (Thorelli) .....	181
4.1.3.3	The 'dynamic network' (Miles/Snow) .....	182
4.1.3.4	Segmentary, polycentric, integrated networks (SPINs) .....	183
4.1.3.5	Strategic network (Jarillo) .....	184
4.1.4	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	185
4.2	Global intraorganisational networks: MNEs .....	187
4.2.1	Strategy in MNEs .....	191
4.2.2	The 'Process School' of international management .....	198
4.2.2.1	The diversified multinational corporation (DMNC) (Doz/Prahalad) .....	198
4.2.2.2	The transnational corporation (TNC) (Bartlett/Ghoshal et al.) .....	205

4.2.2.3	The MNE as a heterarchy and ‘multi-centre structure’ (Hedlund et al.).....	212
4.2.2.4	Other network concepts of MNEs.....	217
4.2.2.5	Critical reflection upon the Process School .....	219
4.2.3	Intraorganisational roles in MNEs.....	220
4.2.3.1	Headquarters-subsidiary relations .....	223
4.2.3.2	Subsidiary roles .....	225
4.2.3.2.1	Subsidiary initiatives.....	227
4.2.3.2.2	Subsidiary mandates .....	229
4.2.3.2.3	Subsidiary role typologies.....	233
4.2.3.2.4	Subsidiary evolution .....	242
4.2.3.3	Critical reflection upon MNE role research .....	248
4.2.4	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	248
4.3	Summary .....	251
5	Global evolutionary processes.....	254
5.1	Evolutionary theories.....	254
5.1.1	Economic evolutionary theories .....	257
5.1.1.1	Organisational routines .....	261
5.1.1.2	Technological trajectories .....	264
5.1.1.3	Evolutionary mechanisms .....	265
5.1.1.4	Foundation of organisations .....	268
5.1.2	Social evolutionary theories .....	271
5.1.2.1	General social evolutionary theory .....	271
5.1.2.2	Theory of structuration (Giddens).....	278
5.1.2.3	Organisational transformation.....	283
5.1.2.3.1	Organisational life cycle .....	283
5.1.2.3.2	Theories of organisational change .....	283
5.1.2.3.3	Concepts of dynamic organisation.....	287
5.1.2.3.3.1	Relentlessly shifting organisations (Brown/Eisenhardt) .....	287
5.1.2.3.3.2	Continuous morphing (Rindova/Kotha) .....	288
5.1.2.4	Evolutionary mechanisms .....	289
5.1.2.5	Management of evolution.....	294
5.1.2	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective .....	296
5.2	The knowledge-based view of management.....	299
5.2.1	Theoretical roots: resource-based and knowledge-based view .....	300
5.2.1.1	The roots of the resource-based view.....	300
5.2.1.2	The roots of the knowledge-based view.....	303
5.2.2	Knowledge in the global context.....	304
5.2.2.1	Knowledge in the global economy.....	304

5.2.2.1.1	National origins.....	305
5.2.2.1.2	Cultural differences.....	307
5.2.2.2	Globalisation knowledge of firms.....	311
5.2.2.2.1	Internationalisation knowledge.....	311
5.2.2.2.2	Network knowledge in MNEs.....	315
5.2.2.2.2.1	Knowledge creation in MNEs.....	318
5.2.2.2.2.2	Diffusion of knowledge in the global network.....	319
5.2.2.2.3	Knowledge-based theory of the MNE.....	324
5.2.3	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective.....	324
5.3	Summary.....	327
6	Evolutionary theory of firm globalisation.....	329
6.1	Properties of firms as social systems.....	333
6.1.1	Theoretical basis of a social systems perspective.....	333
6.1.1.1	Firms as open systems: General systems theory.....	334
6.1.1.2	Theory of living systems.....	336
6.1.1.3	Theory of autopoietic systems.....	338
6.1.1.4	The dual character of social systems.....	340
6.1.2	Properties of firms as allopoietic systems.....	342
6.1.3	Properties of firms as autopoietic systems.....	343
6.1.3.1	Meaning as the basis of social systems.....	343
6.1.3.2	Evolutionary mechanism of social systems.....	345
6.1.3.3	Complexity of social systems.....	347
6.1.3.4	Interpenetration of system and environment.....	348
6.1.3.5	Recursive interplay of action and meaning structure.....	351
6.1.4	Change and reproduction of global social systems.....	352
6.1.4.1	Differentiation and integration.....	353
6.1.4.2	Evolutionary motors.....	356
6.1.5	Co-evolution of social systems and their environment.....	359
6.2	Globalisation capabilities of social systems.....	362
6.2.1	Entrepreneurial capability of firms.....	362
6.2.1.1	Foundation of organisations.....	364
6.2.1.2	Foundation of networks.....	369
6.2.2	Internationalisation.....	374
6.2.2.1	Internationalisation of firms.....	374
6.2.2.2	Internationalisation of networks.....	380
6.2.3	Global network capability.....	381
6.2.3.1	Intrasystemic networking.....	381
6.2.3.2	Intersystemic networking.....	385

6.2.4	Capability of global evolutionary dynamics.....	387
6.2.4.1	The life cycle motor .....	387
6.2.4.2	The teleological motor .....	388
6.2.4.3	The dialectical motor.....	391
6.2.4.4	The Darwinian motor .....	393
6.2.4.5	The autopoietic motor .....	396
6.2.4.5.1	System – environment.....	396
6.2.4.5.2	Element – whole .....	398
6.2.4.5.3	Element – relation.....	399
6.2.4.5.4	Identity – difference.....	399
6.2.4.5.5	Allopoiesis – Autopoiesis .....	400
6.3	A management perspective on the globalisation of firms.....	402
6.3.1	Management of global foundation.....	402
6.3.2	Management of global differentiation .....	403
6.3.3	Management of global network capabilities.....	404
6.3.4	Management of global evolutionary dynamics .....	405
6.3.5	Management of differences in globalisation .....	406
6.4	Contribution to an evolutionary perspective.....	407
6.5	Summary .....	410
7	Conclusions .....	413
