

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
1 The Theory of the Novella	15
Francisco de Lugo y Dávila and Francesco Bonciani's Forensic Readings of Aristotle	17
Forensic Discourse and the Novella	30
2 The Role of Law in the Spanish Versions of Italian Novellas	48
Buried Alive: Telling the Story of Romeo and Juliet in Post-Tridentine Spain	48
Orbecche and Ardenia: The World Upside Down	68
The Legend of Two Friends: Changing the Face of the Body Politic	90
3 The Fictitious Case and the Spanish Novella	110
'El celoso extremeño': Arguing For and Against the Legal Infancy of Women	112
Narrating the Impossible: The Resurrection of Women	133
'El andrógino' by Francisco de Lugo y Dávila: Speaking from a Woman's Body	140
Conclusion	153
Works Cited	159
Index	167