Contents

List of Figures, Tables and Boxes
List of Contributors
List of Acronyms and Abbreviations

Introduction: Triple Bottom Line – Does it All Add Up?
Adrian Henriques and Julie Richardson

1 Enter the Triple Bottom Line
John Elkington

2 Triple Bottom Line: A Review of the Literature
Carol Adams, Geoff Frost and Wendy Webber

3 CSR, Sustainability and the Triple Bottom Line
Adrian Henriques

4 Accounting for Sustainability: Measuring Quantities or Enhancing Qualities?
Julie Richardson

5 Tracking Global Governance and Sustainability: Is the System Working?
Nancy Bennet and Cornis van der Lugt

6 Locating the Government’s Bottom Line
Jonathon Porritt

7 Towards Reporting on the Triple Bottom Line: Mirages, Methods and Myths
Rob Gray and Markus Milne

8 Good Intentions – Bad Outcomes? The Broken Promise of CSR Reporting
Deborah Doane
What a Fine Mess! Moving Beyond Simple Puzzle-solving for Sustainable Development
Rupesh Shah

Environmental Cost Accounting: Coming of Age? Tracking Organizational Performance Towards Environmental Sustainability
Rupert Howes

Sustainability Assessment Model: Modelling Economic, Resource, Environmental and Social Flows of a Project
Tom Baxter, Jan Bebbington and David Cutteridge

Social Capital at Work: A Manager's Guide
Alex MacGillivray

What if Business as Usual Won't Work?
Ros Oakley and Ian Buckland

Put Up or Shut Up
Paul Monaghan

Addressing the Economic Bottom Line
Vernon Jennings

References

Index
List of Figures, Tables and Boxes

Figures

1.1 The triple bottom line takes off 2
1.2 Seven sustainability revolutions 3
1.3 Pressure waves, 1961–2001 8
1.4 Corporate characteristics 11
1.5 The learning flywheel 14
1.6 Integration challenges 15
3.1 Accountability and sustainability 29
4.1 Overview of the sustainability accounting framework 36
4.2 Consumer preferences and ecosystem integrity 40
9.1 In the name of the Niger Delta 97
11.1 The SAM signature for a typical oil and gas project 117
12.1 The role of social capital 122
15.1 The capital model and the triple bottom line 156
15.2 Stakeholders in the Novo Nordisk Kalundborg pilot study 159
15.3 Circulation of money in the local community in Kalundborg 160
15.4 Circulation of money and services at Clayton, North Carolina 161
15.5 The Novo Nordisk economic stakeholder model 164

Tables

1.1 TBL agenda moves from factory fence to boardroom 7
4.1 Financial value added by stakeholders 37
4.2 Accounting for externalities 38
4.3 Different approaches to sustainability accounting 43
5.1 Linking public and private governance systems 47
5.2 Comparison of CSD and GRI indicators 56
10.1 Pro-forma environmental financial statement (EFS) 105
10.2 Wessex Water Services’ external environmental cost accounts, 31 March 2001 110
12.1 A four-way matrix for social capital 123
12.2 Various definitions of social capital 124
12.3 Framework and indicators for managing social capital 129
13.1 Approaches to standards 135
13.2 Sample of standards by authorship 138

Boxes

5.1 UN-related databases on the state of the world environment and development 51
6.1 UK government quality of life indicators 64
9.1 Life expectancy in Africa 89
9.2 Consumption patterns 90
9.3 Migration into Guangdong province 91
9.4 Resource distribution 92
10.1 The maintenance of natural capital: something is missing from corporate accounts 102
11.1 Steps in full-cost accounting (FCA) 114
12.1 Turning Tupelo around 125
13.1 ISO14001 and the process/performance paradox 136
13.2 Responsible Care – an industry standard 138
13.3 Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) 139
13.4 Sustainability integrated guidelines for management (SIGMA) 141
14.1 Sustainability reporting drives performance 150