

Table of Contents

The Work of the Wor(1)d: Comparative Literature and Global Studies
Antonis Balasopoulos and Stephanos Stephanides ..... 7

Worlding the Global

The World 60s
Christopher Connery ..... 23

The University, the Universe, the World, and Globalization
Masao Miyoshi ..... 49

Literary History in Transnational Perspective

Hauntologies of Form: Race, Genre and the Literary World System
Vilashini Cooppan ..... 71

Jack London on the Fringe of Things
Jonathan Auerbach ..... 87

Interplaying National and Transnational Perspectives in post-1989
Comparative Literary History
Marcel Cornis-Pope ..... 101

Other People's Heroes: Intertexts, History, and Comparative
Resistance to Totalization
Gregory B. Lee ..... 115

Mapping Texts Differently: A Case for Re-reading the South
African Imaginary
Liz Gunner ..... 131

"Centers," "Peripheries," and Literary Politics

'Our Worldly Work Supplies Us': 'Vulgarizing' Heidegger Through Argentinean Literature

Gisle Selnes ..... 149

Falsification, Robberies, and Irreverence in the Periphery:

The Case of Borges and Kyriakidis

Eleni Kefala ..... 165

Globality is not Worldliness

R.Radhakrishnan ..... 183

BOOK REVIEWS ..... 199

CONTRIBUTORS ..... 221