

CONTENTS

Katarzyna Dziubalska-Kołaczyk and Jarosław Weckwerth Preface	iii
Antonio Bertacca Description and explanation of language change	1
Dagmar Bittner Emergence of grammatical complexity and markedness in the acquisition of verb and noun phrases in German	25
Patricia Jane Donegan Phonological processes and phonetic rules	57
Wolfgang U. Dressler Naturalness and functionalism	83
Katarzyna Dziubalska-Kołaczyk Challenges for Natural Linguistics in the 21st century: A personal view	103
Livio Gaeta Growth of symbols: The inexorable fate of diagrams	129
Natalia Gagarina Productivity of the verbal inflectional classes (The case of Russian)	153
Theodor Granser and Sylvia Moosmüller Phonemic schwa – a challenge for Natural Phonology? The case of Albanian	165
Gonia Jarema, Gary Libben, Wolfgang U. Dressler and Eva Kehayia The role of typological variation in the processing of interfixed compounds	179
Lavinia Merlini Barbaresi Markedness and text complexity	193
Elke Ronneberger-Sibold On the phonostylistic function of prototypical nonnative sound shapes in contemporary German: Evidence from the history of brand names	211
Šárka Šimáčková Retracted pronunciation of the Czech alveolar trill: Why phonologists need phonetic labs	233
Jarosław Weckwerth From jaw oscillation to phonological compositionality: A scenario	251