

Contents

Editor: A. James Arnold

Charting the Caribbean as a Literary Region A. James Arnold	xiii
---	------

HISPANIC LITERATURE

Subeditor: Julio Rodríguez-Luis

Introduction Julio Rodríguez-Luis	3
---	---

Language, Popular and Literate Cultures, Regions

The History of Literary Language Humberto López Morales	9
---	---

Popular and Literate Cultures

Education in the Hispanic Antilles Julio Rodríguez-Luis	27
---	----

Listening to the Reader: The Working-Class Cultural Project in Cuba and Puerto Rico María Elena Rodríguez Castro	35
--	----

Islands and Territories

Dominican Literature and Its Criticism: Anatomy of a Troubled Identity Silvio Torres-Saillant	49
---	----

Colombian Literature Seymour Menton	65
---	----

West Indian Writing in Central America Ian I. Smart	75
---	----

North of the Caribbean: An Outline for a History of Spanish-Caribbean Literature in the United States Efraín Barradas	85
---	----

Afterword Julio Rodríguez-Luis	95
--	----

Literary Genres

Introduction	101
Julio Rodríguez-Luis
The Colonial Period to the Early Nineteenth Century (All Genres)
Colonial Voices of the Hispanic Caribbean	111
Raquel Chang-Rodríguez
From Romanticism Through Modernismo and Naturalism
Fiction	141
Carlos J. Alonso
The Poetic Production of Cuba, Puerto Rico and The Dominican Republic in the Nineteenth Century	155
Ivan A. Schulman
The Twentieth Century
The Novel	177
William L. Siemens
The Short Story in the Hispanic Antilles	191
William Luis
The Caribbean's Contribution to the Boom	209
Gustavo Pellón
Poetry	221
Emilio Bejel
The Theater	239
Sandra M. Cypess
The Essay	263
Peter Earle
Literature and Politics in the Cuban Revolution: The Historical Image	283
Adriana Méndez Rodenas
Conclusions	295
Julio Rodríguez-Luis

FRANCOPHONE LITERATURE

Subeditor: J. Michael Dash

Introduction	309
J. Michael Dash

Language, Popular and Literate Cultures, Regions

The Formation and Evolution of a Literary Discourse: One, Two, or Three Literatures?	317
Ulrich Fleischmann

Popular and Literate Cultures

Literature and Folklore in the Francophone Caribbean	341
Maximilien Laroche

The Caribbean in Metropolitan French Writing	349
Régis Antoine

Islands and Territories

Haitian Sensibility	365
Léon-François Hoffmann

Martinique and Guadeloupe: Time and Space	379
Randolph Hezekiah

French Guiana	389
Bridget Jones

Conclusions	399
J. Michael Dash

Literary Genres

Introduction	407
J. Michael Dash

The Novel

Novels of Social and Political Protest to the 1950s	415
Frederick Ivor Case

A New Cry: From the 1960s to the 1980s	427
Marie-Denise Shelton

Realism Redefined: The Subjective Vision	435
Beverley Ormerod

Exile and Recent Literature J. Michael Dash	451
Poetry
Poetry Before Negritude Jack Corzani	465
Negritude: Then and Now A. James Arnold	479
New Voices Anthea Morrison	485
Theater
Marronnage and the Canon: Theater to the Negritude Era Juris Silenieks	507
Toward créolité : Postnegritude Developments Juris Silenieks	517
Essay
Before and Beyond Negritude J. Michael Dash	529
Colonialism as Neurosis: Frantz Fanon Vere Knight	547
The Essay and / in History A. James Arnold	559
Index to Names	567