

Contents

Foreword v

Acknowledgements vii

1. What is Modernism? 1

The Object of Examination 4 — The Historical Context of Modernism 16 — The Modernist Code 30 (The Syntactic Component 34 — The Semantic Component 41)

2. James Joyce 48

Exiles 48 — Dubliners 53 — A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man 59 — Ulysses and 'Work in Progress' 65

3. Thomas Stearns Eliot 75

The Early Poetry 76 — The Waste Land 83 — The Restrictions of the Genre 90 — Eliot's Philosophical Background 96

4. Virginia Woolf 102

Reconstruction of the Idiolect of Virginia Woolf 106 — A Modernist Interpretation of To the Lighthouse 116

5. Valéry Larbaud 123

6. Marcel Proust 141

Negation of the Certainty of Knowledge and Explanation 144 — Concept versus Substance 150 — Resistance to Cliché and Conventionality 154 — Anachronism versus Chronology 157 — References to Historical Data 166 — The Cognitive Function of Art 169

7. André Gide 172

Gide's Criticism of Symbolism and Realism (Naturalism) 173 — The Significance of the acte gratuit 181 — Les Faux-Monnayeurs 191

8. Italo Svevo 205

9. Robert Musil 220

Der Mann ohne Eigenschaften 230 — Epistemological Aspects 240

10. Charles Edgar du Perron 252

The Early Fiction of Vestdijk 252 — Ter Braak's Reception of Modernism 257 — Du Perron's Early Reception of Modernism 267 —
A Modernist Interpretation of Het Land van Herkomst 277

11. Thomas Mann 290

Der Tod in Venedig 295 — Tonio Kröger 301 — Doktor Faustus 303

12. Epilogue 318

Index 325