

Contents

Dalton-Puffer, Christiane &amp; Ute Smit.....	7
Introduction
Bowering, Margaret.....	25
The language of a science classroom for LEP learners
Buchholz, Barbara.....	51
Reframing young learners' classroom discourse structure as a preliminary requirement for a CLIL-based ELT approach
Gierlinger, Erwin M.....	79
Modular CLIL in lower secondary education: some insights from a research project in Austria
Lochtmann, Katja.....	119
Die mündliche Fehlerkorrektur in CLIL und im traditionellen Fremdsprachenunterricht: ein Vergleich
Mewald, Claudia.....	139
A comparison of oral foreign language performance of learners in CLIL and in mainstream classes at lower secondary level in Lower Austria
Nikula, Tarja.....	179
The IRF pattern and space for interaction: comparing CLIL and EFL classrooms

Rottmann, Birke .....	205
Sports in English – Learning opportunities through CLIL in physical education
Smit, Ute .....	227
ELF as medium of instruction – interactional repair in international hotel management education
Van de Craen, Piet, Evy Ceuleers, Katja Lochtman, Laure Allain, Katrien Mondt .....	253
An interdisciplinary research approach to CLIL learning in primary schools in Brussels
Wiesemes, Rolf .....	275
Developing a methodology for CLIL classroom research: a case study of a CLIL classroom where the Holocaust is taught
Ziegelwagner, Monika .....	291
Chancen und Probleme des CLIL-Geschichtsunterrichts. Sichtweisen aus der LehrerInnen-Praxis
Contributors .....	327