

Contents

	page
List of contributors	x
List of illustrations	xi
Everything to do with Dionysus: Urdrama , Euripidean melodrama, and tragedy by VICTOR CASTELLANI	1
Desire and the limits of melodrama by WILLIAM R. MORSE	17
The Perils of Dido: sorcery and melodrama in Vergil's Aeneid iv and Purcell's Dido and Aeneas by ROBERT C. KETTERER	31
Guilbert de Pixérécourt: the people's conscience by J. PAUL MARCOUX	47
Pixérécourt and the French melodrama debate: instructing boulevard theatre audiences by GABRIELLE HYSLOP	61
Pixérécourt's early melodramas and the political inducements of neoplatonism by BRUCE A. MCCONACHIE	87
From comedy to melodrama: the transposition of a Polish theme by HALINA FILIPOWICZ	105
La Dame aux Camélias : the myth revised by SUSAN PAINTER	121

Exhuming Lady Audley : period melodrama for the 1990s by JOEL H. KAPLAN	143
Henry Irving, the 'Dr Freud' of melodrama by DENIS SALTER	161
Strindberg's Oväder : melodrama pays a visit by ROBERT F. GROSS	183
'Man against man, brain against brain': the transformation of melodrama in science fiction by GARY WESTFAHL	193
The face of fear by JEFFREY D. MASON	213
✓ The eroticism of evil: the vampire in nineteenth-century melodrama by ROXANA STUART	223
Dionysus in the afternoon: bullfighting as ritual sacrifice and tragic performance by EILEEN FISCHER	245
Modern melodrama: the living heritage in the theatre of John Arden and Margareta D'Arcy by ELIZABETH HALE WINKLER	255
✓ Structure of melodrama by WILLIAM SHARP	269
✓ Defending melodrama by IRA HAUPTMAN	281
Index	291