

CONTENTS

Chapter		Page
	Introduction	1
1	The Maori Warrior and Warfare	5
2	Hone Heke's Challenge	15
3	British Campaign Dress in New Zealand in the 1840s	29
4	Trouble Moves South	33
5	The Taranaki Saga Begins	39
6	British Army Dress and Equipment in New Zealand, 1860–70	49
7	The Advance on Rangiriri	53
8	British Artillery in New Zealand, 1845–66	69
9	Courage is Not Enough	77
10	The Maori Pa	87
11	Battles at the Bay	97
12	New Zealand Militia, Volunteers and Settler Companies	105
13	Birth of the Hauhau	109
14	War Flags of the Maori	113
15	The Lame Seagull's March	115
16	Fighting in the East	125
17	The Colonists Lend a Hand	139
18	A March Round Mount Egmont	145
19	British Regiments and Corps in New Zealand during the Wars of 1845–47 and 1860–70	159
20	New Zealand Armed Constabulary in the Field	165
21	New Zealand Armed Constabulary Field Force	173
22	Whitmore Takes Command	179
23	The Urewera Expedition	187
24	Blockhouses, Forts and Redoubts	197
25	The End of the Wars	201

Appendices

One	Chronology of Events	207
Two	Military Decorations Awarded During the Wars
	Victoria Cross	209
	Distinguished Conduct Medal	212
	New Zealand Cross	213
	New Zealand War Medal	217

Bibliography		218
--------------	--	-----

Text References		219
-----------------	--	-----

Maps		220
------	--	-----

Index		222
-------	--	-----