

CONTENTS

Authors in this volume	9
FRANCO BIANCHINI Introduction. European Urban Mindscales: Concepts, Cultural Representations and Policy Applications	13
METHODOLOGY AND CONCEPT FORMATION
ROLF LINDNER The Gestalt of the Urban Imaginary	35
JUDE BLOOMFIELD Researching the Urban Imaginary: Resisting the Erasure of Places	43
BETTY NIGIANNI 'An Avenue that Looks Like Me': Re-presenting the Modern Cityscape	63
GIANDOMENICO AMENDOLA Urban Mindscales Reflected in Shop Windows	81
NICOLAS WHYBROW Encountering the City: On 'Not Taking Yourself With You'	97
CULTURAL REPRESENTATION OF THE CITY
NEAL ALEXANDER Strange City: Belfast Gothic	113
KEITH WILLIAMS 'Seeing the Future': Urban Dystopia in Wells and Lang	127

BARRY LANGFORD
Strangers (to) Themselves: Cityscapes and Mindscapes in 1980s European Cinema	147
HUGH O'DONNELL
Once in TV's Royal City: Television Coverage of Royal Media Events	163
MATTHEW REASON
Cartoons and the Comic Exposure of the European City of Culture	179
LEVENTE POLYÁK
Drifting Bridges: Semantic Changes of the Bridge Metaphor in Twentieth-Century Budapest	197
STUART PRICE
Reconstructing the Ancient City: Imagining the Athenian Polis	211
APPLICATIONS OF THE CONCEPT OF URBAN MINDSCAPES
KLAUS SIEBENHAAR
The Myth of Berlin: the Imagined and the Staged City	227
GODELA WEISS-SUSSEX
Berlin Literature and its Use in the Marketing of the 'New Berlin'	237
DORIS TESKE
Sites and Sights: the Urban Museum in a Changing Urban Structure	259
LIA GHILARDI
Identity by Invocation or by Design? How Planning is Conjuring up a New Identity for Malmö	275
PAUL BROOKES, interviewed by FRANCO BIANCHINI
Confessions of a Place Marketer	287