

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction xiii

Early Works on Stage and Screen Acting

1 Background 1

Stanislavski's Search for Realism

The System Defined

America's Interpretation of the System

2 Paving the Way for the System: American Stage and Screen Acting, 1900-1930s 7

The Pictorial Theatre

David Belasco Experiments

Silent Film Acting

D.W. Griffith Experiments

The Sound Film Arrives

3 The System in America: Arrival, Interpretation,
Controversy, 1900-1940s 21

Alla Nazimova Arrives

The Moscow Art Theatre in America

Richard Boleslavski and the American Laboratory Theatre

The Group Theatre

4 The System Comes to Hollywood: Crossovers into Film, 1930-1950s 27

Stanislavski's Protégés in Hollywood

The Second Generation in Film

- 5 The Method and the Actors Studio: Experiments and Impact, 1940-1970s 51
 ➤ The Method and the Actors Studio Experiments in Production
- 6 The Method as Mainstream: Theatre and Film Acting, 1950-1970s 59
 American Theatre in the Fifties and Sixties
 Hollywood in the Fifties and Sixties
- 7 The Heritage: American Film Acting, 1970-1980s 69
 Hollywood in the Seventies and Eighties
 ➤ The Actors Studio West
 Film Actors on Film Acting
- Appendix A: Academy Award Nominations for Actors Studio Members 79
- Appendix B: Dates of Studio Membership of Academy Award Nominees 85
- Appendix C: Motion Picture/TV Golden Globe Awards for Actors Studio Members 89
- Notes 91
- Bibliography 103
- Index 113