

Contents

Preface, xi

Acknowledgments, xxiii

INTRODUCTION. I Am a Camera, 1

PART I. WRITING THE PICTURE:

Autobiographies with Few or No Photographs

1 Camera Obscura: Paul Auster, 25

2 Sojourner Truth: Maxine Hong Kingston, 40

3 Case History: Sheila Ortiz Taylor and Sandra Ortiz Taylor, 57

PART II. COLLAGE:

Autobiographies That Combine Words and Photographs

4 We Have All Gone into the World of Light: N. Scott Momaday, 81

5 Available Light: Michael Ondaatje, 103

6 A Life Lived like Water: Reynolds Price, 131

PART III. PICTURING THE WRITING:

Autobiographies by Photographers

7 Every Feeling Waits upon Its Gesture: Eudora Welty, 151

8 The Mirror without a Memory: Wright Morris, 176

9 Still Life Writing: Edward Weston, 205

CONCLUSION. We Are Not Our Own Light:

Self-Portraiture and Autobiography, 225

Notes, 243

Works Cited, 267

Index, 291