

Contents

---

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	xi
1. Environmental Assessment past and present	1
History and development	1
Meaning of Environmental Assessment terms	7
2. Legislation	13
The UK Regulations	13
Summary of current English Environmental Assessment legislation	15
Summary of current Scottish Environmental Assessment Legislation	26
Department of the Environment Circulars	29
Private Bills	30
The principal Regulations	31
3. Schedules 1, 2, and 3	40
Schedule 1 developments	40
Schedule 2 developments	42
Schedule 3: the Environmental Statement	48
The specified information	49
The explanation or amplification of specified information	51
4. Management	56
Management structure	56
5. The Environmental Assessment Programme	64
Stage One: setting up the Environmental Assessment team	65
Stage two: survey of existing environment	66
Stage Three: environmental effects	73
Stage Four: the Environmental Statement	78
6. The Environmental Statement: Schedule 3 Information	82
Physical description of the development 2(a)	83
Environmental data and environmental effects 2(b)	85
Direct and indirect effects	107
Mitigating measures 2(d)	108
Summary 2(e)	112

CONTENTS

Explanation or amplification	113
Alternatives 3(d)	114
Use of natural resources	115
Forecasting methods and difficulties in compiling information 3(f) and 3(g)	115
Section 4 Summary	116
7. Qualitative Assessment Techniques	118
Visual effects	119
Balancing the values of effects	125
Data collection	130
8. Conclusion	141
Index	144

Figures

---

7.1	Zone of visual influence	121
7.2	Kilometre squares	123
7.3	Viewpoints	124
7.4	Sieve maps	126
7.5	Key Matrix	127
7.6	Effects matrix	128
7.7	Secondary effects	129
7.8	Scoring scales	130
7.9	Semantic differentials	131
7.10	Modal scores	132
7.11	Normal scores	134
7.12	Skewed curves	135
7.13	Percentiles	136