

Preface to the Fourth Edition	xiv
Acknowledgements	xv
How to Use this Book	xvi
1 What is Sociology?	0
2 Culture and Society	20
3 A Changing World	48
4 Social Interaction and Everyday Life	78
5 Gender and Sexuality	104
6 Sociology of the Body: Health, Illness and Ageing	140
7 Families	170
8 Crime and Deviance	200
9 Race, Ethnicity and Migration	242
10 Class, Stratification and Inequality	280
11 Poverty, Welfare and Social Exclusion	308
12 Modern Organizations	344
13 Work and Economic Life	372
14 Government and Politics	418
15 Mass Media and Communications	450
16 Education	488
17 Religion	528
18 Cities and Urban Spaces	568
19 Population Growth and Ecological Crisis	600
20 Sociological Research Methods	636
21 Theoretical Thinking in Sociology	662
Glossary	683
Bibliography	703
Acknowledgements	718
Picture credits	720
Index	722

Preface to the Fourth Edition	xiv
Acknowledgements	xv
How to Use this Book	xvi
1 What is Sociology?	0
Developing a sociological outlook	2
Studying sociology	4
How can sociology help us in our lives?	5
Awareness of cultural differences	5
Assessing the effects of policies	6
Self-enlightenment	6
The development of sociological thinking	6
Early theorists	6
Auguste Comte	7
Émile Durkheim	8
Karl Marx	11
Max Weber	13
More recent sociological perspectives	15
Functionalism	16
Conflict perspectives	17
Social action perspectives	17
Conclusion	18
Summary points	18
2 Culture and Society	20
The concept of culture	22
Values and norms	22
Cultural diversity	24
Ethnocentrism	25
Socialization	26
Social roles	28
Identity	29
Types of society	30
Disappearing world: premodern societies and their fate	31
The modern world: industrial societies	35
Global development	36
Social change	40
Influences on social change	42
Change in the modern period	44
Conclusion	45

	Summary points	45
	Questions for further thought	46
	Further reading	47
	Internet links	47
3	A Changing World	48
	Dimensions of globalization	51
	Factors contributing to globalization	52
	The causes of increasing globalization	54
	The globalization debate	58
	The 'sceptics'	58
	The 'hyperglobalizers'	59
	The 'transformationalists'	59
	The impact of globalization on our lives	61
	The rise of individualism	61
	Work patterns	62
	Popular culture	63
	Globalization and risk	65
	The spread of 'manufactured risk'	65
	The global 'risk society'	68
	Globalization and inequality	69
	Inequality and global divisions	69
	The campaign for 'global justice'	72
	Conclusion: the need for global governance	74
	Summary points	74
	Questions for further thought	76
	Further reading	76
	Internet links	76
4	Social Interaction and Everyday Life	78
	The study of everyday life	80
	Microsociology and macrosociology	83
	Non-verbal communication	84
	The face, gestures and emotion	84
	'Face' and self-esteem	85
	Gender and non-verbal communication	86
	Social rules and talk	86
	Shared understandings	87
	Garfinkel's experiments	87
	'Interactional vandalism'	88
	Forms of talk	90
	Response cries	90
	Slips of the tongue	90

Face, body and speech in interaction	91
Encounters	91
Markers	94
Impression management	94
Front and back regions	95
Personal space	95
Interaction in time and space	98
Clock time	100
Social life and the ordering of space and time	100
Conclusion: the compulsion of proximity	100
Summary points	102
Questions for further thought	103
Further reading	103
Internet links	103
5 Gender and Sexuality	104
Gender differences	107
Gender and biology: natural difference	107
Gender socialization	108
The social construction of gender and sex	109
Perspectives on gender inequality	112
Functionalist approaches	112
Feminist approaches	114
Femininities, masculinities and gender relations	118
R. W. Connell: the gender order	118
Transforming masculinities	121
Human sexuality	124
Biology and sexual behaviour	124
Social influences on sexual behaviour	125
Sexuality in Western culture	126
A new fidelity?	128
Homosexuality	129
Homosexuality in Western culture	130
Attitudes towards homosexuality	131
The campaign for legal rights and recognition	132
Prostitution	133
Prostitution today	133
Child prostitution and the global 'sex industry'	134
Explaining prostitution	136

	Conclusion: gender and globalization	136
	Summary points	137
	Questions for further thought	138
	Further reading	138
	Internet links	139
5	Sociology of the Body: Health, Illness and Ageing	140
	The sociology of the body	144
	The social basis of health	144
	Class and health	145
	Gender and health	147
	Race and health	152
	The 'inverse care' law	153
	Medicine and society	153
	The rise of the biomedical model of health	153
	The biomedical model	154
	Critiques of the biomedical model	155
	Medicine and health in a changing world	156
	Sociological perspectives on health and illness	158
	The sick role	159
	Illness as 'lived experience'	160
	Health and ageing	162
	The physical effects of ageing	164
	Problems of ageing	165
	Conclusion: the future of ageing	165
	Summary points	166
	Questions for further thought	168
	Further reading	168
	Internet links	168
7	Families	170
	Basic concepts	173
	Family diversity	174
	Theoretical perspectives on the family	174
	Functionalism	174
	Feminist approaches	175
	New perspectives in the sociology of the family	178
	Marriage and divorce in Britain	180
	Lone-parent households	181
	Remarriage	182

Reconstituted families	183
The 'absent father'	185
Women remaining childless	187
Variations in family patterns:
ethnic diversity in Britain	188
South Asian families	188
Black families	189
Alternatives to marriage	190
Cohabitation	190
Gay and lesbian partnerships	192
Violence and abuse in family life	193
Violence within families	193
Sexual abuse of children and incest	194
The debate about family values	196
Summary points	197
Questions for further thought	198
Further reading	198
Internet links	199

8 Crime and Deviance	200
The sociology of deviance	203
Explaining crime and deviance	205
Biological explanations: 'criminal types'	205
Psychological explanations: 'abnormal mental states'	206
Sociological theories of crime and deviance	207
Functionalist theories	207
Interactionist theories	209
Conflict theories: 'the new criminology'	211
Control theories	213
Theoretical conclusions	215
Patterns of crime in the United Kingdom	216
Crime and crime statistics	216
Crime reduction strategies in the risk society	219
Policy responses to crime	219
Policing the risk society	222
Community policing	223
Victims and perpetrators of crime	224
Gender and crime	224
Crimes against homosexuals	227
Youth and crime	228
White-collar crime	229

Organized crime	232
The changing face of organized crime	233
Cybercrime	233
Prisons: the answer to crime?	235
Conclusion: crime, deviance and social order	237
Summary points	238
Questions for further thought	240
Further reading	240
Internet links	240
9 Race, Ethnicity and Migration	242
Understanding race and ethnicity	245
Race	245
Ethnicity	246
Prejudice, discrimination and racism	250
Racism	251
Explaining racism and ethnic discrimination	252
Psychological interpretations	252
Sociological interpretations	254
Ethnic integration and ethnic conflict	256
Models of ethnic integration	256
Ethnic conflict	257
Global migration	258
Migratory movements	258
Global diasporas	260
Immigration to the United Kingdom	263
Changing immigration policy in Britain	264
Ethnic diversity in the United Kingdom	265
Employment and economic success	267
Housing	270
Race and crime	271
Immigration and ethnic relations on the continent	273
Migration and the European Union	274
Refugees, asylum-seekers and economic migrants	275
Conclusion	277

Summary points	277
Questions for further thought	279
Further reading	279
Internet links	279

10 Class, Stratification and Inequality 280

Theories of class and stratification 283

Karl Marx's theory 283

Max Weber's theory 285

Erik Olin Wright's theory of class 286

Measuring class 287

John Goldthorpe: class and occupation 288

Evaluating class schemes 288

Social class divisions in Western society today 290

The question of the upper class 290

The middle class 293

The changing nature of the working class 294

Class and lifestyle 296

The underclass 297

Gender and stratification 298

Determining women's class position 298

The impact of women's employment on class divisions 299

Social mobility 300

Comparative mobility studies 300

Downward mobility 301

Social mobility in Britain 302

Gender and social mobility 303

Conclusion 304

Summary points 304

Questions for further thought 306

Further reading 306

Internet links 306

11 Poverty, Welfare and Social Exclusion 308

Poverty 311

What is poverty? 311

Measuring poverty 312

Recent trends in poverty in the UK 314

Who are the poor? 315

Explaining poverty 316

Poverty and social mobility 319

The underclass controversy	320
Background to the underclass debate	321
The underclass, the EU and migration	321
Is there an underclass in Britain?	322
Social exclusion	323
Forms of social exclusion	326
The homeless	328
Crime and social exclusion	331
Welfare and the reform of the welfare state	332
Theories of the welfare state	332
The rise of the British welfare state	334
Reforming the welfare state	336
Conclusion: rethinking equality and inequality	340
Summary points	341
Questions for further thought	343
Further reading	343
Internet links	343

12 Modern Organizations 344

Organizations and modern life	346
Theories of organization	348
Weber's view of bureaucracy	348
Michel Foucault's theory of organizations: the control of time and space	353
Bureaucracy and democracy	357
Gender and organizations	359
Women in management	360
Beyond bureaucracy?	363
Organizational change: the Japanese model	363
The transformation of management	364
Technology and modern organizations	365
Organizations as networks	366
The debate over debureaucratization	368
Conclusion	370
Summary points	370
Questions for further thought	371
Further reading	371
Internet links	371

13 Work and Economic Life 372

What is work?	375
Paid and unpaid work	375

Trends in the occupational system	376
The knowledge economy	377
The division of labour and economic dependence	379
Taylorism and Fordism	382
The limitations of Taylorism and Fordism	384
The transformation of work	384
Post-Fordism	384
Flexible production	385
Group production	385
'Multiskilling'	386
Criticisms of post-Fordism	387
Women and work	387
Women and the workplace: the historical view	390
The growth in women's economic activity	390
Gender and inequalities at work	391
The wage gap	393
Are occupational gender inequalities breaking down?	395
The domestic division of labour	397
Work and the family	400
The work-family challenge	400
'Family friendly' work policies	403
Unemployment	407
Analysing unemployment	407
Trends in unemployment in Britain	408
The experience of unemployment	409
Job insecurity	410
The rise in job insecurity	411
The harmful effects of job insecurity	412
The end of the 'job for life'?	414
The declining importance of work?	414
Summary points	415
Questions for further thought	417
Further reading	417
Internet links	417

14 Government and Politics	418
Government, politics and power	420
The concept of the state	421
Types of political rule	421

Monarchy	422
Democracy	422
Authoritarianism	424
The global spread of liberal democracy	424
The fall of communism	424
Explaining the popularity of liberal democracy	428
The paradox of democracy	429
Political parties and voting in Western countries	432
Party systems	432
Parties and voting in Britain	434
Thatcherism and after	434
'New Labour'	435
Third way politics	436
Political and social change	439
Globalization and social movements	439
Technology and social movements	441
Nationalist movements	442
Theories of nationalism and the nation	442
Nations without states	443
Nations and nationalism in developing countries	445
Conclusion: the nation-state, national identity and globalization	446
Summary points	447
Questions for further thought	448
Further reading	449
Internet links	449

15 Mass Media and Communications	450
Newspapers and television	452
Newspapers	452
Television broadcasting	453
The impact of television	455
TV and violence	458
Sociologists study TV news	458
Television and genre	460
Theories of the media	461
Early theories	461
Jürgen Habermas: the public sphere	462
Baudrillard: the world of hyperreality	462
John Thompson: the media and modern society	463

New communications technology	465
Mobile telephones: the wave of the future?	467
The internet	469
Origins of the internet	469
The impact of the internet	471
Globalization and the media	473
Music	474
Cinema	475
Media 'supercompanies'	477
Media imperialism	478
The global media and democracy	480
Resistance and alternatives to the global media	481
The issue of media regulation	482
Conclusion	484
Summary points	484
Questions for further thought	486
Further reading	486
Internet links	486
16 Education	488
The changing role of education	491
Education and industrialization	491
British education: origins and development	492
Education and politics	494
International comparisons	497
Higher education	498
The system in Britain	502
E-universities	504
Education and new communications technology	505
Technology in the classroom	505
Education and the technology gap	506
Privatizing education	507
The United States: educational entrepreneurs	507
Britain: rescuing 'failing schools'	509
Evaluation	510
Theories of schooling and inequality	510
Bernstein: language codes	510
Illich: the hidden curriculum	512
Bourdieu: education and cultural reproduction	512

Willis: an analysis of cultural reproduction	513
Gender and education	515
Gender and achievement in school	515
Gender and higher education	518
Education and ethnicity	519
Social exclusion and schooling	519
IQ and educational success	520
What is intelligence?	520
Emotional and interpersonal intelligence	522
Conclusion: lifelong learning	523
Summary points	524
Questions for further thought	526
Further reading	526
Internet links	526

17 Religion	528
Defining religion	531
What religion is not	531
What religion is	531
Varieties of religion	533
Totemism and animism	533
Judaism, Christianity and Islam	533
The religions of the Far East	535
Theories of religion	536
Marx and religion	536
Durkheim and religious ritual	537
Weber: world religions and social change	538
Assessment	539
Types of religious organization	540
Churches and sects	540
Denominations and cults	540
Evaluation	540
Gender and religion	542
Religious images	542
Women in religious organizations	542
Religion, secularization and social change	545
The dimensions of secularization	545
Religion in the United Kingdom	546
Religion in the United States	550
Evaluating the secularization thesis	552
New religious movements	553
Types of new religious movements	553
NRMs and secularization	555
Millenarian movements	555
The followers of Joachim	556
The Ghost Dance	556

The nature of millenarian movements	556
Apocalypticism	557
Religious fundamentalism	557
Islamic fundamentalism	558
Christian fundamentalism	562
Conclusion	564
Summary points	564
Questions for further thought	565
Further reading	566
Internet links	566

18 Cities and Urban Spaces	568
Features of modern urbanism	571
The development of modern cities	573
Theories of urbanism	573
The Chicago School	573
Urbanism and the created environment	576
Trends in Western urban development	579
Suburbanization	579
Inner city decay	580
Urban conflict	581
Urban renewal	582
Urbanization in the developing world	587
Challenges of urbanization in the developing world	587
The future of urbanization in the developing world	590
Cities and globalization	591
Global cities	591
The city and periphery	592
Inequality and the global city	593
Governing cities in a global age	593
Managing the global	594
Cities as political, economic and social agents	594
Conclusion: cities and global governance	596
Summary points	596
Questions for further thought	598
Further reading	598
Internet links	598

19 Population Growth and Ecological Crisis	600
World population growth	603
Population analysis: demography	603

Dynamics of population change	603
Population growth in the developing world	604
The demographic transition	608
Projections of future population growth	608
Human impact on the natural world	609
Concern about the environment: are there limits to growth?	610
Sustainable development	611
Consumption, poverty and the environment	612
Sources of threat	613
Pollution and waste	613
Depletion of resources	617
Risk and the environment	621
Global warming	621
Genetically modified foods	627
Looking to the future	631
The environment: a sociological issue?	632
Summary points	633
Questions for further thought	634
Further reading	634
Internet links	635

20 Sociological Research

Methods 636

Sociological questions	639
Is sociology a science?	640
The research process	641
The research problem	641
Reviewing the evidence	642
Making the problem precise	642
Working out a design	642
Carrying out the research	642
Interpreting the results	642
Reporting the findings	643
Reality intrudes!	643
Understanding cause and effect	643
Causation and correlation	644
Causal mechanism	644
Controls	644
Identifying causes	645
Research methods	646
Ethnography	646

Surveys	647
Experiments	649
Life histories	650
Historical analysis	650
Combining comparative and historical research	651
Research in the real world:
problems, pitfalls, dilemmas	652
Investigating race and poverty in urban spaces	653
Conclusion: the influence of sociology	657
Summary points	660
Questions for further thought	660
Further reading	661
Internet links	661

21 Theoretical Thinking in Sociology 662

Max Weber: the Protestant ethic 664

Theoretical dilemmas 666

Dilemma 1: Structure and action 667

Dilemma 2: Consensus and conflict 669

Dilemma 3: The problem of gender 670

Dilemma 4: The shaping of the modern world 672

Later theories 674

Postmodernist theory 674

Michel Foucault 675

Other viewpoints 675

Jürgen Habermas: democracy and the public sphere 676

Ulrich Beck: risk society 677

Manuel Castells: the network economy 678

Anthony Giddens: social reflexivity 679

Conclusion 680

Summary points 681

Questions for further thought 681

Further reading 682

Glossary 683

Bibliography 703

Acknowledgements 718

Picture credits 720

Index 722