

Contents

Series Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Chronology	x
Prologue	i
Introduction	6
A Feminist Framework	6
Critical Perspectives	8
Anthologies	10
Readers and Writers	12
Androgyny	18
Chapter 1 Self-Reflexivity	23
Poetic Daring	24
Poetic Inspiration	28
Poetic Relationships	31
Poetic Form	38
A Theory of Self-Reflexivity	43
Chapter 2 Performance	55
Self-Exposure	58
Theatrics	64
Role-Play	66
Slam Poetry	70

Chapter 3 Private Voices	79
Separate Spheres	81
The Lyric	84
Poetic Convention	87
Privacy in History	91
'I could not find a privacy': Emily Dickinson	97
Chapter 4 Embodied Language	111
Objects/Subjects	112
Writing the Body	115
Desire: Christina Rossetti	117
Creativity and Femininity	126
Chapter 5 Public Speech	138
Authority	139
The Romantic Movement	143
Oppression	151
War	154
Speech	157
Chapter 6 Poetry and Place	166
Borders	167
Borderland Britain	175
Specificities of Place: Elizabeth Bishop	179
Chapter 7 Experimentation and Form	187
Mythology and Fairytale	188
Modernist Experimentation: Marianne Moore	190
Contemporary Avant-Garde Poetics	195
Conclusion	205
Student Resources	209
Critical Contexts	209
Studying Poetry	211
Close Reading	213
Writing about Poetry	215
Web Resources	216
Glossary	217
Guide to Further Reading	221
Index	224