

CONTENTS

	Preface	9
1	The Englishman and His Language	11
2	How Self-expression Began	16
3	Philology – the Relationship of Languages	20
4	Our Ever-changing Speech	24
5	Ancient Greek and Latin and Their Progeny	30
6	Basque, Celtic and Teutonic	37
7	Sanskrit	41
8	Armenian, Persian and Albanian	45
9	Slavonic, Baltic, and Hittite	48
10	Semitic	53
11	The Languages of Africa and of Sri Lanka	56
12	Turanian Languages of the Ural and Altai Regions	59
13	Eastern Turanian – Chinese, Japanese and Malay	61
14	The Course of Prehistoric Migration	64
15	Examples of Etymology	67
16	Nasal Sounds, American English and Pidgin English	72
17	Diminutives	75
18	The Definite Article and the Personal Pronoun YOU	77
19	Development or Degradation?	81
20	The Numerals Compared in 24 Tongues	84
21	Linguistic Family Tree	91
22	How to say NO – A Study of Negatives	93
23	Written Records and Alphabets	96
24	Conclusion	99
	Index	103