

Contents

Foreword Harold Carter	vii
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
1 An Introduction to Geolinguistics Colin H. Williams	1 K
2 Geolinguistics: Its Scope ^{Benidri / Mosipont} and Principles William F. Mackey	20 X
MACRO-SOCIAL CONTEXT
3 Language, Geography and Social Development: The Case of Norden Thomas Lundén	47
4 Assessing the Authenticity of a Supra-National Language-Based Movement: La Francophonie William Walter Bostock	73
METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES
5 On Measuring Language Border Areas Colin H. Williams and J.E. Ambrose	93
6 The Geographical History of Gaelic in Scotland Charles W.J. Withers	136
7 Sources and Methods in the Study of Language Areas: A Case Study of Wales W.T.R. Pryce and Colin H. Williams	167

APPLICATIONS

8	Language Policy and Internal Geopolitics: The Canadian Situation Don Cartwright	238
9	Language Planning and Regional Development: Lessons from the Irish Gaeltacht Colin H. Williams	267
10	Conclusion Colin H. Williams	303
	Index	309