

Transcriptions, xi

Foreword by Alan Trachtenberg, xi

Preface, xv

Acknowledgments, xxi

PART I: THE MUSIC IN THE CULTURE

1. Down Home, 3
2. The Singers' Perspective, 30

PART II: THE SONGS

3. Early Downhome Blues on Record:
 A Representative Sample, 59
4. Musical Analysis: Toward a Song-Producing System, 137
5. Formulaic Structure and Meaning in Early Downhome
 Blues Lyrics, 175

PART III: THE RESPONSE

6. Recording the Blues, 193
7. The Cultural Significance of Race Record Advertisements, 218

Afterword, 261

APPENDIX A

Patterns of Record Purchase and Listening, 281

APPENDIX B

Sermon by the Reverend Emmett Dickinson:

 "Is There Harm in Singing the Blues?," 287

Notes, 289

Bibliography, 305

Index, 313

CONTENTS