

Contents

List of Tables, Figures, Map and Appendixes	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Preface
Robert H. Robins and Eugenius M. Uhlenbeck	xiii
1. Language Death and Disappearance: Causes and Circumstances Stephen A. Wurm	1
2. Language Death in Africa Matthias Brenzinger, Bernd Heine and Gabriele Sommer	19
3. The Endangered Languages Problem: South America Willem F. H. Adelaar	45
4. Endangered Languages in Mexico Beatriz Garza Cuarón and Yolanda Lastra	93
5. The Condition of Native American Languages in the United States Ofelia Zepeda and Jane H. Hill	135
6. The Decline of Native Languages in Canada M. Dale Kinkade	157
7. An Appraisal of Indian Languages B. P. Mahapatra	177
8. Endangered Languages of Mainland Southeast Asia James A. Matisoff	189
9. The Endangered Languages of Australia, Indonesia and Oceania R. M. W. Dixon	229

- 10. The Problem of Endangered Languages in the USSR
Aleksandr E. Kibrik

257

List of Tables, Figures, Map and Appendixes

Tables

Table 2.1	Language death in Africa: number of languages and/or dialects considered	28
Table 2.2	Number of African languages which are extinct or in a process of extinction according to nations	29
Table 2.3	'Prestige' as a motivating factor of language shift in Africa	38
Table 4.1	Languages of Mexico with fewer than 500 speakers	97
Table 4.2	Drastic reduction of the Indian population in the sixteenth century in Mexico	104
Table 4.3	Speakers of Indian languages in Mexico over the age of five: percentage in relation to the total population, 1930-80	107
Table 5.1	Indigenous languages of the United States and Canada by number of speakers	136
Table 6.1	Reference and teaching materials on native languages of Canada	166
Table 7.1	The four language families of India	178
Table 7.2	Scheduled languages in India with number of speakers and decadal variation in speaker strength	184
Table 9.1	Linguistic materials available on Australian languages	239
Table 9.2	The languages of Indonesia	241
Table 9.3	Linguistic materials available on Indonesian languages	244
Table 9.4	The languages of Papua New Guinea	245
Table 9.5	Languages spoken on the islands of the Pacific	251

Figures

Figure 8.1	Subgroups of Austroasiatic	194
Figure 8.2	Subgroups of Tibeto-Burman	195
Figure 8.3	The Hmong-Mien family	196
Figure 8.4	Two views of Sino-Tibetan	197
Figure 8.5	'The Austro-Tai-Japanese' hypothesis	198

Map

Map 4.1	Present-day distribution of Mexican and Mesoamerican Indian languages	95
---------	---	----

Appendixes

Appendix 4.1	Present-day languages of Mexico	110
Appendix 4.2	Extinct languages not yet classified	120
Appendix 4.3	Extinct languages which have been classified	124