

CONTENTS

Foreword by the editor vii

| | | |
|------------------------|--|-----|
| LYNNE BRINDLEY | The library and the electronic campus | 3 |
| SIR JOHN BROWN | Scholarly publishing: retrospect and prospect | 15 |
| DOUGLAS W. BRYANT | The American Trust for the British Library | 23 |
| KEITH CLAYTON | Measuring the cost of published research | 33 |
| KENNETH COOPER | The British Library – an organization for others | 45 |
| BRIAN J. ENRIGHT | Academic library ideas and reality: the library practitioner and iatrogenics | 59 |
| W. GORDON GRAHAM | A bridge not too far | 75 |
| JOHN GRAY | Problems of national information policy | 81 |
| NORMAN HIGHAM | The librarian as professional | 91 |
| MICHAEL W. HILL | From reference library to information service: a review of the changing role of the Science Reference and Information Service | 101 |
| MAURICE B. LINE | The universal library | 119 |
| FREDERICK W. RATCLIFFE | The role of the scholar in the library | 135 |

CONTENTS

| | | |
|---------------------------|--|-----|
| ANTHONY E. RITCHIE | 'Unto the hills' – a personal bibliography of Scottish mountaineering | 151 |
| J. MICHAEL SMETHURST | The Atkinson Report – 10 years on | 159 |
| IAN STEWART | While Clio – and the other muses – slept | 173 |
| SIR PETER SWINNERTON-DYER | The evolution of the British Library's research policy | 179 |
| GLANMOR WILLIAMS | Welsh authors and their books, c.1500–c.1642 | 187 |
| ALEXANDER WILSON | Moving to planned deterioration: library preservation strategy at the national and local level | 197 |

Papers and lectures by Lord Dainton on science, education, libraries and information 208

Notes on the contributors 211