

CONTENTS

About the Authorsxi
Acknowledgmentsxiii
Forewordxv
Introductionxix
Part I	Magnitude, Concepts, and Epidemiology of Unintentional and Intentional Injury..... 1
Chapter 1	The Importance of the Injury Problem: Magnitude, Cost, and Preventability3
	What This Chapter Is About3
	Introduction3
	Magnitude12
	Costs15
	Preventability17
	Conclusion20
Chapter 2	Conceptual and Historical Underpinnings of Injury and Injury Prevention25
	What This Chapter Is About25
	Introduction26
	High Points in the Conceptual Evolution of Injury .28
	Injury Biomechanics29
	Injury Prevention31
	Intent35
	Conclusion36
	Appendix 2-A: Overview of Landmark Injury Prevention, US, 1937–200439
Chapter 3	Epidemiology of Injury49
	What This Chapter Is About49
	Introduction49
	What Is Epidemiology?51
	Data55
	Methodology59

	Selecting a Study Design	63
	Conclusion	65
	Appendix 3-A: External Cause of Injury Mortality (ICD-9)	71
	Appendix 3-B: External Cause of Injury Mortality (ICD-10)	73
Chapter 4	Unintentional Injury	77
	What This Chapter Is About	77
	Introduction	78
	Motor Vehicle Injuries	79
	Falls	83
	Poisonings	84
	Fires and Burns	85
	Drowning	86
	Asphyxiation	86
	Sports and Recreational Injuries	87
	Occupational Injury	88
	Conclusion	89
	Appendix 4-A: Injury-Related Year 2010 Objectives: Unintentional Injury Prevention	97
Chapter 5	Intentional Injury	101
	What This Chapter Is About	101
	Introduction	101
	Self-Inflicted Violence	103
	Homicide	106
	Nonfatal Assaultive Violence	108
	Intimate Partner Violence and Sexual Assault	109
	Child Abuse	112
	Elder Abuse	114
	The Interrelationship of Types of Violence	115
	Epidemiology	116
	Approaches to Solutions	120
	Conclusion	131
	Appendix 5-A: Injury-Related Year 2010 Objectives: Violence and Abuse Prevention	147

Part II	Basic Concepts of Injury Prevention	151
Chapter 6	Injury Prevention: General Principles	153
	What This Chapter Is About	153
	Introduction	154
	General Principles of Injury Prevention	156
	Implementation	158
	Conclusion	163
Chapter 7	Injury Prevention: Educational Strategies	167
	What This Chapter Is About	167
	Introduction	168
	Conceptual Principles	169
	Techniques for Educating and Persuading	171
	Who Are We Educating?	174
	When and How to Use Educational Strategies:
	A Balanced Approach	178
	Evaluating Results	183
	Conclusion	185
Chapter 8	Injury Prevention: Environmental Modification	193
	What This Chapter Is About	193
	Introduction	193
	Modifying the Environment	195
	Examples	196
	The Role of Public Health Professionals	203
	Conclusion	208
Chapter 9	Injury Prevention: The Role of Law	211
	What This Chapter Is About	211
	Introduction	211
	The Number and Variety of Injury
	Prevention Laws	212
	State Police Power	213
	Federal Authority	217
	The Nature of Injury Prevention Laws	217
	Validity of Injury Prevention Laws	220
	Other Objections to Injury Prevention Laws	225
	Public Health Practitioners and the Law	227
	Tort Law	230
	Conclusion	232

Part III	Practical Knowledge, Skills, and Strategies	237
Chapter 10	Injury Prevention: The Role of Public Agencies . . .	239
	What This Chapter Is About	239
	Introduction	240
	The State Players	241
	The Federal Players	257
	Conclusion	275
Chapter 11	Developing a Public Health Agency Injury Program: A Systems Approach	285
	What This Chapter Is About	285
	Introduction	286
	Getting On The Agenda	289
	Starting Up: The Importance of the Lead Agency	298
	Critical Factors	303
	Conclusion	315
	Appendix 11-A: Developing a State Injury Prevention Plan: The Process	319
Chapter 12	Injury Surveillance: A 10-Step Plan	323
	What This Chapter Is About	323
	Introduction	323
	What Data Do You Need?	324
	Step 1: Define the Objectives for the Injury Surveillance System	325
	Step 2: Form a Data Committee	328
	Step 3: Identify Existing Data Sources	329
	Step 4: Determine the Strengths and Limitations of Each Data Source	350
	Step 5: Conduct Preliminary Data Analysis	355
	Step 6: Reevaluate Objectives for the Surveillance System Based on Steps 3 through 5	355
	Step 7: Consider Linking Information from Existing Data Sources	356
	Step 8: Perform Validation Studies to Evaluate the Injury Surveillance System	358
	Step 9: Develop a Dissemination Plan for Sharing Data	359
	Step 10: The Surveillance to Action and Funding	360

	Conclusion	361
	Appendix 12-A: An Injury Surveillance Example	369
Chapter 13	Real World Evaluation Techniques	373
	What This Chapter Is About	373
	Introduction	374
	Evaluation Steps	376
	Constraints on “Perfect” Evaluation	394
	Conclusion	396
	Appendix 13-A: An Evaluation Case Study	401
Chapter 14	Injury Prevention: Opportunities and Barriers ...	409
	What This Chapter Is About	409
	Introduction	410
	Funding Limitations	411
	Organizational Difficulties	415
	Turf Battles	417
	Scientists, Policymakers, and Myths	418
	Economic and Political Aspects of Injury Prevention	420
	Sustainability of Injury Prevention Programs ...	425
	Advocacy	427
	Communicating With Lawmakers	431
	Examples	437
	Conclusion	445
	Conclusion	451
	Appendix A—Injury-Related Web Sites	453
	Index	469