

Contents

List of Plates	vii
Preface	ix
1. 'Weimar-on-Sea': How Sanary Becomes a Writers' Refuge	1
2. A 'Slander' on Richard Wagner: The Torment of Thomas Mann	21
3. A French Envoy Drops a Hint: Heinrich Mann the Francophile	35
4. Warning in Washington: Lion Feuchtwanger Portrays Life Under the 'Hooked Cross'	42
5. Émigrés as 'Deserters': Klaus Mann's Literary Feud with Gottfried Benn	51
6. Cleansing the 'Literary Brothels': German Students Celebrate Their 'Bibliocaust'	61
7. Rivalry in Ragusa: H. G. Wells Treads the PEN Tightrope	73
8. 'Seppel' and the 'Slimy Frog': A Jewish Publisher Stays on in Berlin	86
9. 'A Reckless Act'? Klaus Mann Launches His Review	99
10. Watching and Waiting: Thomas Mann Prepares His 'Politicum'	113
11. 'I Have Let My Conscience Speak': Thomas Mann Comes Off the Fence	118
12. 'The Curtain Falls': A Berlin Publisher's Odyssey	129
13. From Bonds to Blitzkrieg: Leopold Schwarzschild Bares Hitler's War Plans	136

14. 'We Have Just Saved Culture': The Paris Writers' Congress of 1935	148
15. 'I Came, I Saw, I Shall Write': Feuchtwanger's Misguided Mission to Moscow	165
16. 'Canaan-sur-Seine': The Strange End of the Pariser Tageblatt	180
17. 'Secret Kaiser' and 'Red Czar': Heinrich Mann, Willi Münzenberg and the Volksfront	206
18. Back from Oblivion: Postwar Germany's Mixed Feelings About Its Exile Writers	228
Bibliography	237
Index	249

List of Plates

1. Sanary shortly after the war
2. A gathering at the Huxleys' home in Sanary: Marta Feuchtwanger, Arnold Zweig, William Seabrook and Lion Feuchtwanger
3. Thomas Mann in Sanary, summer 1933
4. Die Brennessel caricatures Heinrich Mann as Marlene Dietrich in Der Blaue Engel
5. A portrait of Marta Feuchtwanger by Walter Bondy
6. Lion Feuchtwanger
7. Eva Herrmann
8. Thomas Mann's eldest son, Klaus
9. Gottfried Benn
10. An anti-Nazi cartoon depicts the notorious book-burning that students organised across the country, May 1933
11. H. G. Wells
12. The pacifist writer Ernst Toller in prison
13. Gottfried Bermann-Fischer, Thomas Mann's publisher
14. Thomas Mann's eldest daughter Erika
15. Cover of Das Neue Tage-Buch
16. Leopold Schwarzschild
17. Eva Herrmann caricature of Henri Barbusse and André Malraux
18. Lion Feuchtwanger and Bertolt Brecht at the 1935 writers' congress
19. André Gide looks up at E. M. Forster as he addresses the writers' congress in Paris
20. A portrait of Aldous Huxley by Walter Bondy
21. Georg Bernhard
22. The political cartoon was a common Nazi propaganda weapon
23. 'The émigré press ... and its lies factory at work', Nazi cartoon, 1934
24. Heinrich Mann and André Gide
25. 'The pen is mightier ...', cartoon by Walter Trier
26. Thomas Mann in Frankfurt, on his first post-war visit to Germany, 1949