

Contents

FOREWORD BY TONY ATTWOOD	9
FOREWORD BY EILEEN SUTHERLAND	11
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	13
Introduction	15
1 Characters, Caricatures and Conversations	17
Part One: Background	23
2 Autistic Spectrum Disorders for Janeites	25
3 Pride and Prejudice for Autism Specialists	32
Part Two: The Bennet Family	37
4 Mr Collins 'awkward and solemn... often moving wrong without being aware of it'	39
5 Mary Bennet 'every impulse of feeling should be guided by reason'	49
6 Lydia Bennet 'untamed, unabashed, wild, noisy, and fearless'	55
7 Mr Bennet 'so odd a mixture of quick parts, sarcastic humour, reserve, and caprice'	63
8 Mrs Bennet 'with manners so far from right herself'	83

Part Three: The Fitzwilliam Family	97
9 Anne De Bourgh 'spoke very little'	99
10 Lady Catherine De Bourgh 'not rendered formidable by silence'	105
11 Fitzwilliam Darcy 'I am ill qualified to recommend myself to strangers'	111
Part Four: Conclusion	161
12 Happily Ever After?	163
13 How Did Austen Know?	195
REFERENCES	201
INDEX	204