

Contents

Figures · vii

Maps · ix

Abbreviations · xii

Introduction: The Familiarity of Capitalism · 1

Part I. The Age of the Individual

1. The Wendels and the French State · 41
2. The Pioneer in German History · 73
3. The Industrial Origins of the Falcks · 99

Part II. The Age of the Corporation

4. The Gutehoffnungshütte as a Joint-Stock Company · 119
5. French Companies in Two Countries · 136
6. An Italian Joint-Stock Company · 161

Part III. The Age of Organizationalism

7. The Politician as Businessman · 179
8. A Family Concern · 204
9. Models of Italian Industrial Development · 245

Part IV. The Age of the Postwar Miracle

10. A Costly Miracle in Italy · 263
11. A New Kind of Family Togetherness · 273
12. Postwar Reconstruction in France · 298

Part V. The Age of Globalization

13. Wendel Becomes a Conglomerate, French Style · 325
14. The Crisis of Italian Steel · 341
15. German Diversification and Internationalization · 353
16. Family Capitalism and the Exit from Steel · 369

Conclusion: Family Entrepreneurship • 377

Appendix: Family Trees • 387

Notes • 393

Acknowledgments • 423

Index • 427

Figures

1. Dollar stock index for France, Germany, Italy, and the United States, 1906–1998	33
2. Charles de Wendel, 1809–1870	64
3. Madame François de Wendel (Madame Joséphine), 1784–1872	67
4. Franz Haniel, 1779–1868	86
5. Franz Haniel and grandchildren, ca. 1865	97
6. Giorgio Enrico Falck, 1802–1886	100
7. Family of Giuseppe Rubini	104
8. Irene Rubini Falck, 1840–1919	107
9. GHH iron and steel production, 1870–1940	120
10. Hugo Haniel and family, ca. 1885	122
11. GHH Martin Works	125
12. GHH-constructed dock at Qingdao	134
13. Madame Henri de Wendel with her children	154
14. The Wendel chateau in Joeuf	155
15. Ballot of Reichstag for Henri de Wendel	157
16. François de Wendel, 1874–1949	181
17. Return of the Wendels to Hayange, November 1918	183
18. Propaganda against the “200 Families”	193
19. Paul Reusch, 1868–1956	207

20. Prisoners of war in GHH, First World War	209
21. The GHH Konzern in the 1920s	217
22. GHH Aktienverein profits and dividends, 1924–1944	236
23. Giorgio Enrico Falck, 1866–1947	251
24. San Giorgio delle Ferriere	253
25. Enrico Falck, 1899–1953	265
26. Cardinal Montini visits the Falck Montessori school, 1952	267
27. The GHH before and after reorganization, 1953	276
28. Alfred Haniel, 1883–1964	285
29. Share prices of major French steel companies, 1961–1971	311
30. Reorganization of Wendel holdings, 1975	318
31. Wendel stock prices, 1989–2003	337
32. Market capitalization, CGIP/Wendel Investissement, 1998–2002	338
33. Price charts, CGE&Y and Valeo, 1998–2003	339
34. Long- and short-term debt of Falck, 1961–1980	342
35. Falck stock prices, 1935–2003	350
36. Falck profits and share prices, 1935–2000	351
37. Haniel as a new company in the 1980s and 1990s	363